THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Tune God Into Your Lives.

Tune God into your lives dear friends. He comes on either wave, to free you from the guilt of sin. To pardon and to save. Tune God into your lives dear friends. You need each day to hear. The Counsel of his tender love, the voice that quiets fear. Oh, let him speak to you: His promise peace and solace give, It will your hope renew.

Receive the heavenly guest, all tension, strife and hate must flee, where his name is confessed and hate must flee, where his name is confessed. His fellowship embrace that you may know the highest joy, and daily grow in grace. Tune God into your lives dear friend. Your stronghold let him be, your strength and refuge here in time, your God eternally.

BE STRONG

Text: "Thou, therefore, my son, be strong." II Tim. 2:1.

BE STRONG! The man who urged Timothy, "Keep faith!" was a man who kept the faith. When he writes, "Be strong!" It is with no weak hand. "Endure hardship," Paul writes; his own record is partially revealed in II Cor. 11:23-31.

REV. D. M. CLARK

First of all, Timothy, "take strength from the Grace of God which is ours in Christ Jesus."--Endure hardness. Accept discipline like a soldier--like a soldier of Jesus Christ.

Train yourself as an athlete trains himself for the games. "Keep yourself in training for the practice of religion." Tim. 4:7. Godliness and Christian character, deepened faith, spiritual efficiency and spiritual victory come only with effort, application, study, sacrifice and discipline. A successful coach said of his athletes, "They do not go into training; they stay in training."

How greatly the nation needs young Timothys.

This challenge, in terms of the Christian Church, is to help our young people become more knowledgeable and dedicated Christians. They must know what they believe and why they believe it and practice what they believe.

They must be in communication with the source of strength, accept discipline like a soldier stays in training.
