

THE SEEN AT THE SCENE

VOICE roving photog caught these shots last week as local folks were doing their thing.

The Twenty-Second Annual State Convocation of the Churches of God in Christ was recently held at the Cox Upperroom of God in Christ, 1117 'F' Street Las Vegas. The convocation was very successful beginning with the premusical on Monday night and lasting through the seven days of the convocation.

The opening Day, Tuesday, was highlighted by a visit by the honorable Mayor Oran Gragson to make all of the attendants of the convocation welcome to the city of Las Vegas.

On Friday night everyone received a special treat with a visit from the National and International Bishop of the Church of God in Christ. He delivered an inspirational message which can be very beneficial to all who were privileged to hear him.

The Baptismal services were Saturday afternoon. There were members from various churches in the state to receive the water baptism.

Sunday was official day in honor of the State Bishop E.N. Webb. Bishop Webb delivered a dynamic sermon during the afternoon services.

The convocation ended Monday night services in honor of Mother Bailey, the National Supervisor of the Women's Department.

This was the best attended and perhaps the most successful C.O.G.I.C. Convocation held in the State of Nevada.

Elder Robert Jefferson and Elder James Cox were ordained Sunday by the State Bishop, Bishop E.M. Webb during the 22nd St. Hally Convention of the churches of God in Christ in Nevada in the Upperroom Church of God in Christ, 1117 'F' St. Las Vegas, Nev.
