

ASSEMBLYMAN RICHARD BRYAN FILED FOR REELECTION TO NEV. ASSEMBLY

Clark County Assemblyman Richard Bryan filed for reelection to the Nevada Assembly. Bryan, a Democrat, seeks his Party's nomination for one of two seats in Assembly District 5.

With the 32 year old lawmaker at the time of his filing were his wife Bonnie and their three children.

A native Las Vegas, Bryan is a graduate of Las Vegas High School and the University of Nevada. Following a tour of active duty with the United States Army, he attended the University of California Hastings College of Law, where he was graduated with honors.

In 1964 he was appointed Deputy District Attorney for Clark County, a post which he held until being named Clark County's first Public Defender.

Long an advocate of fiscal responsibility--while serving as Public Defender he returned more than $18,000.00 to the County Treasury in funds which were budgeted for his office but not expended. During his tenure as Public Defender, the Clark County Public Defender program received national acclaim by the Ford Foundation's National Defender Project as one of the top offices in the nation.

In a filing statement, Bryan pledged "to lead the fight for a fair and just reapportionment of the State Legislature, which will give the people of Clark County a numerical majority in both houses of the Legislature for the first time."
