By THE GHOST

Seems as if Wendall Waite N. L. V. Councilman-Teacher wants to have the office of Mayor Pro-tem for another term. He sez that he has only served at one meeting and that was since the end of his term. So what they really are talking about is the prestige of the job. Because Mayor Echols is not a traveling man, stays on the job.

Of course there is a principal involved. But the Ghost is sure that Councilman Waite will pass in Councilman Williams favor just to show how fair-minded he is and that he practices what he teaches in school, that all men are equal.

The Ghost noted that those self styled leaders were absent at Sundays meeting. Could have been they were afraid to take the chance of finding out what the community really thinks about them. And that they might lose face in many circles or maybe they see the handwriting on the wall. At least those in attendance were spared from listening to the Big I people brag about what they have done for the Community.

The Ghost thinks that people of the community who sit silent while vandals destroy public property should think twice and reflect that this public property belongs to the people. The vandals are destroying their property. For what one of us would sit quietly by if our personal property was being wrecked. So let's keep the vandals and their hands off our property.

The meeting held in the Voice office Sunday afternoon brought out a very representative cross section of interested citizens.

Saturday August 8th at 3 p.m. was selected as the next meeting date.

Those of you who missed the last meeting are invited to attend this one because we are on the move.

At the North Las Vegas City Council Meeting of August 3rd the Mayor Pro-tem will finally be elected. As members of the Black community we should be present to know first hand how and who will be elected. We think it should be Aaron Williams since he is the only Councilman who has not served as Mayor Pro-tem.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Dignitaries, friends and tenants of Harry C. Levy Gardens all joined in to make the Installation Ceremony at the Senior Citizen Lodge, a gala affair. The beautiful luncheon was arranged by the very active tenants themselves. There were many many guests attending. Among the well wishers were Mrs. Harry Levy, Robert Gordon, James Down, Bud Weeks, Dept. Dist. Attorney Addelair D. Guy and Arthur Sartini. Mrs. Mae Couyette, referred to as a jewel, was the newly elected president, Mrs. Margaret Van Durem secretary, others elected were Mary Schuster, Alma Copp and Francis Silvey. The ladies were all presented corsages, and officials from Archie C. Grant were introduced and on hand to congratulate the new officials.

L. to R: Tom Mulroy (Registrar of Voters), James Andrus, Gill Blonsley and Paul Carelli, being sworn in.

Pledging to restore fiscal responsibility and quality education to Southern Nevada, three Las Vegans filed today as members of a reform ticket to run for at-large seats on the Clark County District Board of Education.

Filing as a team were James C. Andrus, 34, a certified public accountant; Gill Blonsley, 32, administrative officer for the District Health Department, and Paul V. Carelli, 31, an attorney.

The three candidates pledged to conduct the affairs of the school district in public and end the practice of board decisions being made behind closed doors.

The candidates state that, "We hope to help re-shape our school system to benefit the people most directly concerned: The children who need to learn and the teachers who want to be effective in their jobs.

Criticizing what they termed was a growing breakdown in communications between school authorities and the public, the three agreed the school board should create a committee made up of representation from the Parent Teachers Association, teachers groups, board members and students.

The committee would serve as a public sounding board to discuss major problems and to explore new alternatives for emerging problems.
