THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

LET US ASK GOD

Let us ask God to give each one of us a spirit of reverence. Ask God to come into each of our hearts to manifest his presence and to wield his influence therein. Ask God for insight, that each of us might envision what he has in mind for us that we might prepare ourselves to rise to the occasion and enter into the fullness thereof. Ask him for more faith that we might attempt greater things; More wisdom to make the choice which must necessarily be made; more courage to know that is right, ask him to make us more unselfish, to help us see the need of others. Let us ask God to prepare us for his service. Ask him to make us willing to offer our interests. Our skills, ourselves and all that we have to develop a quality of self and service that will enable us to go forth, stand tall and meet the challenges to this day.

Ask God to help us to inspire those who are in charge, and to awaken the talents with in them that they might prepare themselves to blossom into the fullness of their potentials and be a blessing to both God and Man.

The Rev. J. L. Simmons, a member of the National Baptist Convention USA Inc. and officers, Moderator of the Pride of the West District Association, just returned home as a delegate from the National Baptist Convention, which was held in the Rivergate Auditorium at New Orleans, La., Sept. 8th through the 13th. It was the 90th annual session.

Rev. Simmons extends his gratitude to the members of the St. James Baptist Church where he is pastor, the Pride of the West District Association and his many friends for making the trip for him possible. "I was very pleased when the Las Vegas Voice asked me for a Convention report," Simmons said. Rev. Simmons was the first minister to represent the State of Nevada at this convention in 1943. The convention has a total membership of 6,300,000, and more than 20,000 delegates attended the 90th annual session. "We thank the many churches of our count and state for holding fast to our banner of the National Baptist Convention, a part of Goln Barry, as he rides before his men holding the flag up high and said I'll bring it back or else report to God the reason why.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

Gora, one of the leading voices of India's movements of independence and social liberation, will speak to the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship on "Nonviolent Direct Action in a Democracy." The Fellowship meets each Sunday from three to five in Gudmundsson Hall of the First Congregational Church, 1200 North 25th (just south of Owens). Child care is provided.

The monumental struggles for independence and liberation which India has suffered during this century have created nonviolent direct action as one of the most potent, viable moral and political forces of this century. In his work with Gandhi, with the Boodhan movement, and in the forefront of the struggle for social equality among the castes, Gora has proved himself one of the most articulate and committed of the discipline's advocates. He is the author of "An Athiest with Gandhi" and an assortment of adult education texts.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is an informal religious group, meeting weekly to consider any matter of interest. We find no possibility unworthy of consideration, no opinion insignificant; we welcome all interested persons to come, listen and participate.

Notice To ADC Parents

If you have any earnings during the month you must report them to your eligibility worker by the 15th of the month. You must show your worker checks or check stubs or employer's receipts, or if you have nothing else, a signed statement from your employer.

You may show these things to your worker in person in the office, or may send them to your worker in the mail.

You must report any earnings made each month. Example: By the 15th of October you will report earnings from September 15 to October 15th.

Any month you have earnings, and fail to verify them with your worker your welfare check for the next month will be held until you have shown your worker the verifications needed.

and continue through November 1, 1970. The church is located at 1113 North "H" St.
