

AROUND THE TOWN WITH THE GIRL WATCHER

Starting at the Landmark, where Connie Francis is playing we ogled our way around. Not even a nibble.--So dashed over to the International (a real good spot) popped in to catch Gladys Knight and the Pips. (Some groovy cats). Seeing as how Sunday was so close, figured I might as well hear what the tight Reverend Red Foxx was preaching about. (whew! some sermon) so, since I never had aces back to back swinging on over to the Palace to dig my man George Kirby - who is co-starred with Petula Clark. Figured I might save some Keno money by anking cross the street to the Flamingo where the Mills Bros. were doing their thing.

Then I remembered that I ought to check out the Penguin Club out in North Las Vegas. (By the way its the first and only Black lounge in town.) Saw some of that ole gang of mine Les Jackson, Q. B., Charley Horse, Henry P.- Now poor Henry and myself have a bad understanding on what you call class in Girl watching, so I split. (Cause 'a little fish should not be in the same pond with the big fish.)

So on my way back accross town, I thought I would pick up in the happenings at the Cosmo. The action was good but it was to close for honest to goodness girl watching or I wasn't using the right bait.

So I wheeled on out to the Frontier - Diana Ross, I keep missing her act. I musta had my watch on backwards, cause I was to late. It's hard to see my watch when I am doing my elbow bending exercises. Anywho I'm feeling real good so I dash out to the Tropicana. Teo of my favorite guys - The Count of Basie, and crooning Joe Williams were on tap. Too late again and the girl watching was bad too.

So standing out front of the Trop., I flipped a coin to see if I would go out to the "H" and hear the Ink Spots or what. When my VO spoke up again and said man like give it up on the girl watching. Your luck will be better at Keno. So I takes out my slide rule and it showed that the 9 now down was hot. Well either the figures lied or I didn't read right, cause the numbers that kept repeating were 9-31-41-50-52-55-65-71, and I didn't play them. I wuz gonna but when I checked the bank roll - it wasn't a roll any more, but flat as a pancake.

So smile the sky was turning a funny color I split to the pad for forty winks. Humming "Some Day We'll Be Together," again.

cent by December. 'Prime interest rates are already the highest in 100 years,' he stated.

'Because business cannot expand, or must be cut back in some cases, there are no new jobs and less work for those fortunate enough to have a job,' Cannon said.

He said that in the housing industry, 2.6 million new units per year are necessary to adequately house our population, but only 1.1 million new starts were made in the past year. Cannon said that inflation is showing no sign of easing up, and that in the past two years, 'a worker would need 11 per cent more money just to stay even.'

Exploring National Safe Driving Road Rally

The Exploring National Safe-Driving Road Rally is scheduled for Saturday, November 7, 1970, beginning from Clark High School at 9:00 a.m. Any and all Exploring posts and organized high school clubs are cordially invited and urged to participate. Trophies will be awarded to the first five places and special awards will be given to all participants.

Sponsors of the Rally include the California State Automobile Association, The Sports Car Club of America, The Lincoln-Mercury Division of the Ford Motor Company, and the Exploring Division, Las Vegas, Nevada. Also lending assistance is the Clark County Sheriff's Department.

A Rally Instruction School is set one week prior to the Rally on October 31, 1970, at Clark High School to be conducted by the S.C.C.A.

There is a registration fee of $2.00 for each person planning to participate in the rally and the meal at the destination. For more information or registration forms contact Exploring Divisions, 1135 University Road, Las Vegas, or call 736-4366. But hurry! October 21, 1970 is the deadline date for car registration.

What's keeping you from looking good?

Getting gray?

It's only natural to panic a little when you see those first gray hairs... or when you realize that chemical processing is slightly fading your natural color. Many women, just like you, hesitate to use permanent peroxide haircoloring because they don't want to change their natural color. What to do?

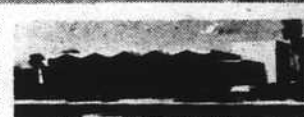

Hair care and beauty experts agree that slightly graying and fading can add years to a young woman's looks... but they also know what takes the years away. Loving Care®. Clairol created this semi-permanent hair color lotion without peroxide. It colors only the gray or faded hair... and doesn't change your natural shade. There's no haircoloring gentler. Your hair stays shining and healthy-looking through a month of shampoos.

If you have questions about your hair, you're wise to go to the experts. Professional hairdressers have the whole family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest, most personalized results.

So don't panic. Be comforted with a quick visit to the expert... your hairdresser. And keep on looking good!
