NCCJ, BLACK GROUPS JOIN IN CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK--The National Conference of Christians and Jews and three predominately black organizations have joined in a campaign to "eradicate racism and polarization." The black groups in the new organization, called the National Committee for Commitment to Brotherhood, are the National Association for the Advance of Colored People, the National Urban League and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Shown during the New York news conference which launched the organization are, from left: Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gossett of the NAACP; Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League; Dr. Sterling W. Brown, NCCJ President; and Betty Brooks, assistant national director for development for the SCLC who represented the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, SCLC president, who was ill.

Q--I am currently training as an apprentice under the G.I. Bill. As a part of my training my employer has asked me to take a correspondence course. Will VA pay for the lessons completed through correspondence, in addition to providing the allowance under the apprenticeship program?
A--No. You cannot be paid for a correspondence course at the same time you are pursuing training under an apprenticeship program.
