COMMENTS, from page 1

Clark County School District and newly elected assemblyman from southern Nevada. Judge Mullen described the problems of the court in dealing with "revolving door" alcoholics. John Rudback gave a glowing report on the success of a new type of alcoholism therapy group, or "contact" group. This group helps alcoholics who were previously unable to utilize A. A. therapy, by combining frank discussion with an explanation of the principles of A. A. Contact with this group can be established by calling 385-0268. Jack Schofield is extremely aware of community problems concerning alcoholism, and assured the members of the Interagency Council that he would support more meaningful legislation for the prevention and treatment of alcoholics.
