

Seagram Vanguard Society Trophy Adwarded To Helen Hardin

Mrs. Helen E. Hardin has been named recipient of the Seagram Vanguard Society Trophy for 1970.

The Trophy, awarded annually to persons of outstanding accomplishment in the fields of business, community affairs and the arts and sciences, was presented to Mrs. Hardin by Stephen Lockett (left), assistant to the vice president/general sales manager of Seagram Distillers Company, and Robert Saunders, Seagram account executive in Metropolitan New York.

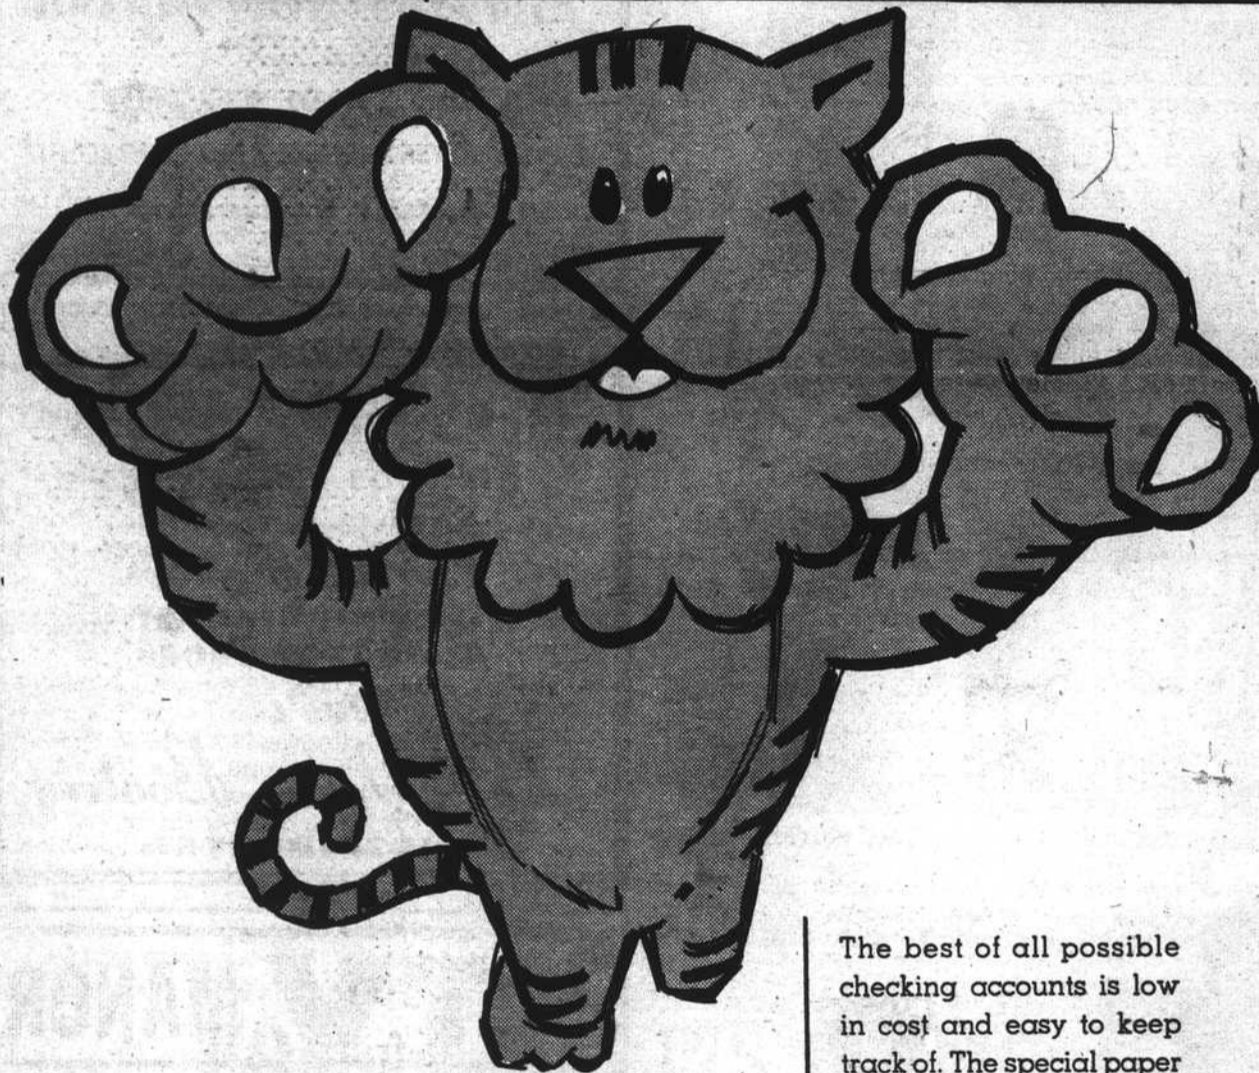

Since 1962, Mrs. Hardin has been a guidance counselor for the intermediate grades in a Manhattan elementary school, on assignment from the Bureau of Educational and Vocational Guidance of New York City's Board of Education.

In addition, Mrs. Hardin serves as vice chairman of the National Urban League Guild and is actively involved in a variety of civic activities. These include the Northsiders North Side Center for Child Development, the National Conference of Christian and Jews, the National Council of Negro Women and the NAACP.

She has been a member of the curriculum committee for the Board of Education in a school district in Queens and serves on the literature committee of the Central Board of Education for New York City.
