"The Abstract Thinking Of A Black Man"

A Collection of Poems Entitled...

"SISTER CHILD AND BROTHER MAN"

As I sit alone
And I often do,
Sorting out fallacy
From what seems true,
I wonder --
Why they call me militant?
Cause I won't accept
Economic chains on my feet,

Or racist chains 'round my neck?--
I can see my brothers and sisters
Shuffling along in despair,
In the army of unemployment
Or reaching out for welfare.
Now with the weight of Oppression upon us--
There are those who still try
To make and find a better life,
But their high hopes soon die--
Well, Black America is aware
Of this political game being played--
By White Dogooders, while
Aspirations are delayed.
Racism, the whole country thru
Conservatism, a new voice to be heard.
Hate! All dolled up in a new dress.
Liberals, becoming down right absurd--
Now listen, I'm not so smart
But it seems to me,
That White America needs
Someone, to set them free--
And with each day's dawning sun,
For us Black folks,
A change has gotta come,
But I wonder.
