VA FACTS

The number of veterans taking police, fireman and other "protective service" training under the G.I. Bill increased by 90 per cent during FY 70. Police and fire departments interested in setting up a program should contact their nearest VA office; interested veterans should apply at local police and fire departments. ****

April was a record month! Nearly 871,000 persons trained under G. I. Bill provisions, the most since June 1, 1966.

VA Question And Answers

Q -- I am 20 years old, and going to college under the War Orphans Educational Assistance Program. I earned $800 last year, and wonder if that will prevent me from receiving benefits?

A -- No. There is no limit on your earned income.

Q -- I am attending the University under the G. I. Bill, and my wife and I are expecting a child later this year. Will I receive extra benefits for the child from the date of birth, or only from the date I inform the VA?

A -- You must inform the VA of the child's birth by submitting a copy of the birth certificate within one year from the child's birth. Then you will be paid from the date of birth.

Q -- My wife is the principal beneficiary on my National Service Life Insurance Policy with a lump sum settlement. If both of us were fatally injured in a car accident, but she survived me even by a few minutes, how would the proceeds of the policy be handled? How could expensive probate proceedings be eliminated?

A -- If your wife survived you, she becomes the beneficiary under the policy. The VA must pay the proceeds to her estate, and not to the contingent beneficiaries that you may have specified. Probate could be avoided through the use of the "Common Disaster Clause," available upon request at the time the policy is issued or later. This provides for a time lapse between the death of the insured and payment of the proceeds to the principal beneficiary. Thus, if the beneficiary fails to survive the specified period, payment of NSLI proceeds will be made as if the principal beneficiary had died before the insured.
