skirt, but praises the hot pants. The short skirts are fun, she says, they give a feeling of lightness of mood -- of gaiety -- long skirts tend to reflect a more somber attitude, somehow reminiscent of the days of the Depression of the poor state of the economy.

However, the accepted freedom of choice in clothes is both a challenge and an opportunity that is right for this period in time, Miss Carroll says, and adds that the passing of the age of dictatorship in fashion and in makeup will bring no signs from her.

"I've never liked being told what to do -- what to wear -- how to look and I like finding my own way, making my own style, changing and experimenting, and I'm glad that is 'in'."

meeting of the upper-middle-income community of Lexington, Mass., a suburb of Boston.

Leading the opposition will be special guest Advocate J. Daniel Mahoney, co-founder and state chairman of the New York Conservative Party.

Opponents argue that the tradition of home rule in the suburbs ought to be preserved, and they question whether low-income housing there is desirable. They say the influx of urban poor would place a disproportionately higher tax burden on the other homeowners.

therefore a like reduction in O.O.A. will result in termination of his financial assistance from the State as well as Medicaid benefits."

Rev. Clark concluded that "The EOB is not concerned with where the fault lies, but with the fact that this is clearly a great wrong--a wrong," the Board Chairman stated "that MUST be made right."

Q. I am enrolled in both parts of Medicare. If I get a routine physical checkup by my family doctor every year, will Medicare pay for it?

A. No. Routine physical checkups are not covered under Medicare.

Q. I've been getting monthly social security benefits since I was 62. I'll be 65 in March 1971. What do I have to do to sign up for Medicare?

A. There are two parts to the Medicare program. You will automatically qualify for the hospital insurance part without doing anything. Hospital insurance, financed through employee and employer contributions to social security during a person's working years, requires no premium payments.

The other part of Medicare is medical insurance. You should receive a form in the mail several months before you are 65 asking if

PAUL PRICE BLASTS HIS OPPONENT

City Commission candidate Paul Price has charged his opponent, Hal Morelli, with "Utter hypocrisy" and disclosed that Morelli has voted only three times in the last 23 years.

"Yesterday, in an obvious attempt to appeal to younger voters, Morelli advocated the passage of the 18-year-old vote. This is utter hypocrisy since Morelli himself has traditionally failed to exercise his own sacred right to vote," said Price.

Price said Clark County election department records document Morelli's failure to vote in elections.

"In more than two decades, Morelli cast only three votes except, of course, earlier this month when he did find time to go to the polls and vote for himself," he said.

"In view of his dismal failure to exercise such a basic democratic right, it is difficult to imagine that he, in good conscience, could be the advocate in requesting the vote for someone else."

"This is not a smear or a personal attack on Mr. Morelli," he said. "Rather it is a simple statement of fact. Mr. Morelli can confirm or deny his failure to vote, or explain the reasons why he did not vote over the years. The records are available, there is plenty of time left before the election."

"I point out Mr. Morelli's dismal voting performance because I am appalled that anyone with such an incredibly poor record at the polls would attempt to use voting rights for others as a campaign platform and because the people have a right to know how truly dedicated and allegedly 'concerned' this citizen really is," he said.

Price, who has one daughter 19-years old, said that he supports the lowering of the voting age "because it would be unreasonable to allow our young people to vote for some offices and deny them a voice in others."

"I believe that younger Americans have a lot to contribute to our political process. I am confident that they will prove to be worthy of this responsibility."

THE LESSER OF TWO EVILS

All politicians make promises, we all know that, but I feel we, the people of the Black Community, should be concerned with past records, and if deaf ears make up the individual characteristics, of the candidate or candidates, for whom you wish to vote.

Let us deal with Commissioners, for they truly have powerful roles, which touch the people directly day to day. Be especially concerned with Commissioner sear #3, and let us avoid letting an oppressor, return to office to do just that. Oppress Blacks. WES HOWERY, IS LESSER OF TWO EVILS. We should give him our votes on June 8th, because he says he'll try, and because the man is concerned. His opponent, has DEAF ears, and makes no bones about it, he doesn't give a damn, about what we think. He thinks he has the election in the bag to walk away with, and thinks Black votes won't change that, and thinks he has us all rapped up, in that bag. I sure hope we fool him election day.

What have we really asked Wes Howery for? Give him your votes then pour it out, and (ask, ask, ask). I am not pinning any roses on the man's chest, he'll LISTEN, he won't promise what he can't DELIVER, and he'll TRY. The man is indeed THE LESSER OF TWO EVILS, and we do have a choice, and I hope we all choose it.
