Highway Notice

The detour north of Owens Avenue at the Union Pacific crossing will be closed all day Monday, January 10, beginning at 7 a.m. while the railroad tracks are being elevated, Resident Engineer Deon Sanders reported.

The public finding it necessary to use Owens during the day will be routed by barricades to the closest convenient crossing, but District Engineer Jack Parvin of the Nevada Highway Department suggested that alternate routes be planned by motorists for next Monday.

Construction of the Owens Avenue Interstate 15 crossing of the railroad tracks is a $1,579,194.94 project that also includes the Lake Mead Blvd. crossing of the freeway.

Contractor on the job is Frehner Trucking Service. The project has been under way since June 15, 1970.

CONGRESSIONAL BLACK CAUCUS ANNOUNCES LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATION SERVICE

WASHINGTON, D.C., December 28, 1971--A legislative investigation service to analyze legislation and interpret the guidelines of enacted bills, and to identify and monitor pending bills was announced by the Congressional Black Caucus according to Howard Robinson, Executive Director.

The Congressional Black Caucus will identify, monitor and follow from beginning to end the legislation that will have immediate or long range, direct or indirect effect on the lives of Black people. Once the bill is passed, the legislative investigation service will analyze the bill and interpret its administrative guidelines for the benefits or unfavorable affect to Black Americans.

Such investigation and casework is now being conducted by the staff of the Congressional Black Caucus, but increased emphasis will be placed on these activities, including a larger number of bills studied and a more indepth analysis made.

A report of the analysis will be made public (See Black Caucus page 7)
