

About 25,000 babies are born yearly with in-born heart defects, most of which can be corrected by surgery. Your Heart Association, supported by the 1971 Heart Fund, has been a major force in the development of cardiovascular surgical procedures.

In conjunction with the P.O.S.E. Program, two third grade classes at K. R. Booker Sr. Elementary School and teachers, Miss J. Arctiland and Mrs. Jackie Hoggard invited their paired schools, North Ninth and Tom Williams to enjoy and share a Negro History Program, Negro History Week.

The speaker for the day was Mr. James Shipp, Principal of Madison School. The children gave reports, recited Black Poetry and concluded with a delicious "Soul Food" Luncheon.

Final remarks were given by the principal, Mr. Theron Goynes.

Children in foreground are from three school mentioned.

Jim Brennan Guest On "Every Tuesday"

The chairman of the Clark County Board of Commissioners, James Brennan, will be the newsmaking guest on the "Newsmakers" segment of "Every Tuesday," Feb. 29, 9:30-10:30 PM. Brennan will answer questions about county government from a panel of reporters including Morrie Zenoff of the Henderson Home News; Murray Wessgate of TV 13; John Hanna, of TV 3; and a reporter from the Las Vegas Review-Journal.

The questions on "Newsmakers" are unrehearsed and unrestricted. Also on "Every Tuesday" are regular departments where viewers speak their minds about issues affecting life in Southern Nevada.

EIGHTH GRADE CHAMPS--Jim Bridger's Alonzo Brooks (15) takes one off the boards in the championship eighth grade basketball game at K. O. Knudson Monday, won by Bridger over Hyde Park 56-44.

That's Bridger's Darrell Wilson (51) ready to help and Hyde Park's Mike Whitehead (14) wishing he was closer on this one. The same Bridger boys were seventh grade champions last year and they boast a two-season record of 25 wins against one defeat.
