Holloway And Reginato Go To Washington, D.C.

The National Education Association held the Tenth Annual Conference on Civil and Human Rights in Education, February 18, 19 & 20, 1972 in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Jerry Holloway, Specialist for Intergroup, Washoe County School District and Mrs. Leslie Reginato, Teacher-Advisor for Intergroup were invited to participate in the conference.

The central theme was "Tests and Use of Tests---Violations of Human and Civil Rights." Mr. Holloway stated that it was rewarding to share ideas, concerns and suggestions for a change strategy with persons from throughout the United States. Both participants felt that this meeting provided a valuable opportunity to explore alternative measures and evaluation processes that are helpful tools in the educational process.

Mr. Holloway is presently serving as the State Chairman of the Nevada State Education Association Human Relations Council.

Senators Cannon and Bible held an educational conference that was attended by Mr. Holloway and Mrs. Reginato.

Concerned Citizens Meet

Northeast Reno Outreach Council meeting which was held on Feb. 8th at Traner Jr. High School, with Grant Bastian, Highway engineer in attendance which proved once again how attitudes affect the thinking of the establishment in regards to minority people. Bastian's response to the closing of Montello Street was one of unconcern and apathy, he stated he could not support us in our struggle to have this street reopened, but would help set up a meeting with the (See Citizens page 11)

Reno N.A.A.C.P. Criticizes Equal Rights Commission

Bertha Woodard, President of the Reno-Sparks branch of the National Association for Colored People, called the commission's investigation by Director Tony McCormick on a House of Prostitution "a grandstand publicity stunt."

Mrs. Woodard said the commission has achieved for itself a national image as being tough on houses of prostitution charged with discrimination. Mrs. Woodard said, "this commission has been pussyfooting around on the vital issues of employment, housing, health and welfare." She said the commission at its December meeting in Reno postponed "numerous complaints of discrimination because the commission had not done its home work."

Mrs. Woodard added that Gov. Mike O'Callaghan is ultimately responsible for the inaction of the commission, because he appoints its members.
