Employment Security Department

CARSON CITY -- Nevada veterans drawing paychecks from jobs federally funded by the Emergency Employment Act (EEA) numbered 267 at the end of May, the Nevada Employment Security Department said.

Department chief Robert Archie said 109 Vietnam veterans are among the total 267 former servicemen and women. Vietnam veterans receive top priority for the federally funded employment.

Archie said the 267 veterans are "in all areas of Nevada in public service jobs, which not only afford them a living but also contribute to the well being of the community."

The EEA public service jobs include occupations in hospitals and health services, law enforcement, fire protection, environmental quality, education, transportation, and conservation.

VA Questions & Answers

Q -- I named my mother as beneficiary of my VA insurance while I was single. I have since married, but now plan a divorce. Can I CHANGE BENEFICIARIES AGAIN?

A -- Yes. VA regulations permit an insured to change beneficiaries as many times as desired.

Q -- I was separated from active duty several years ago. When will my GI Bill entitlement expire?

A -- Assuming you are otherwise eligible and were released from active duty after Jan. 31, 1955, you have eight years to use your GI Bill benefits or until May 31, 1974, whichever is later.

Q -- Can the lender who gave me my GI home loan legally raise the interest rate on my balance?

A -- No. VA regulations do not permit interest rates to be increased above the contract rate agreed upon when the loan was made to the veteran.

Abdul-baha Speaks on The Baha'i Principles

This is the fifth in a series of talks Abdul-Baha gave to the Theosophical Society, in which he explains the principals of the Baha'i Faith.

X. The tenth principle of Baha'u'llah is: Education and instruction of women.

Women have equal rights with men upon earth; in Religion and society they are very important elements. As long as women are prevented from attaining their highest possibilities, so long will men be unable to achieve the greatness which might be theirs.

XI. The eleventh principle of Baha'u'llah is: The Power of the Holy Spirit, by which alone Spiritual development is achieved.

It is only by the breath of the Holy Spirit that spiritual development can come about. No matter how the material world may progress, no matter how splendidly it may adorn itself, it can never be anything but a lifeless body unless the soul is within, for it is the soul that animates the body; the body alone has no real significance. Deprived of the blessings of the Holy Spirit, the material body would be inert.
