Angela Davis To Speak
At SCLC Convention In Dallas

ATLANTA, GEORGIA,--The Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) announced from its national headquarters here today that Angela Davis will speak at the organization's banquet August 16 during the 15th Annual SCLC Convention in Dallas, Texas, August 15-18. Other highlights of the convention will include: The President's Annual Report by Dr. Ralph Abernathy.

The semi-annual SCLC Board of Directors meeting. National speakers on issues of concern to poor people.

Presentation of the organization's highest awards, including the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Award and the Rosa Parks Freedom Award. Dr. King was President of SCLC from its founding in 1957 until his assassination in 1968. Mrs. Parks is the black woman whose arrest for refusing to give up her seat on a bus touched off the Montgomery Bus Boycott of 1955-56 - the movement that led directly to the establishment of SCLC.

The Annual Culture Night, August 15.

A public mass rally, August 17.

Workshops on politics, economics, community organizing, education, labor, and international issues.

Continual discussion and speaking on the convention's theme; "Politics '72-The Challenge of Poor People."

In announcing that Miss Davis will speak at the annual banquet, Dr. Abernathy said: "Just as we are proud of our support for the defense of Angela Davis throughout her trial, which recently ended in her acquittal, we are very pleased that she is now free to address our convention. It is significant that she has regained her freedom to speak, and SCLC is an organization which will always defend that freedom. In my judgement, Miss Davis was a victim of political repression, she was publicly tried, convicted and condemned by the nation's highest officials before she reached the courtroom. The threat against Angela Davis was a threat to the basic liberty and free speech of all citizens."

Convention headquarters in Dallas will be St. John the Baptist Church, 2600 South Marsalis Avenue. Rev. Robert Wilson, Pastor of the church, is an SCLC National Board Member.

The SCLC Dallas office telephone number is (214) 428-4673.
