educational expenses incurred for a child in the first or higher grade.

If a deduction is claimed for the care of a disabled dependent, the deduction must be reduced by the amount by which the total of the dependent's adjusted gross income and any non-taxable disability payments he receives exceeds $750. In the case of a disabled spouse, the expenses must be reduced by non-taxable disability payments.

Taxpayers must itemized deductions in order to claim child care expenses. As with all itemized deductions, good records must be kept and expenses documented.

Publication No. 553, "Highlights of 1971 changes in the tax law," which includes information on child care expenses is now available free at IRS offices.
