

Dotti's Doin's

BY DOTTI ALLEN

Everybody's talking about juvenile delinquency and the generation gap. When you get right down to it, there is no such thing as a generation gap. The gap is a term created by adults when by choice and/or an unadmitted failure by adults to communicate with our young citizens. Ask yourself, "don't expect an honest answer" when is the last time you really tried to reach your youngster?

Adults in Action for Youth Promotions is a program designed to bridge the gap between this so-called "generation gap" and at the same time rid the public streets of what is commonly referred to as a public nuisance (kids playing in the streets).

Congrats . . . to the Cocains who staged a well attended outdoor concert at the Guy Recreation Center Friday nite. Anyone present would surely agree there was a million dollars worth of talent appearing on the all night show. Guest bands included The Bank of Stuff, The Starlighters, The Soul Machine and Maker. Another SUPER talented group Vegas should keep an eye on, is a group called "The Moyo Rappers," and when they rap you just have to stop and listen. This group even has a very unusual hat named after them they call them Moyo Rap Hats Sooo Vegas look out.

Sgt. David (Buddah) Coe a very active member in the Prince Hall Military Masonic Lodge # 27 at Nellis Air Force Base, had a as he called it, a friendly get-together Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Long was the gracious hostess at the party, and Mrs. Charity Croft an entry in the Jay Cee County Fair, with her fabulous Buttermilk Pound Cake, was the chef. When Charity is burnin in the kitchen you find yourself runin back for seconds and third helpins. Among those present at the get-together were . . . Sgt. and Mrs. John Williams, Arnold and Jan Jones, John and Jan Wright, Miss Artimese Jones, Mrs. Georgia Streeter, Mrs. Alice Harris, Sgt. Richard Bartee, Mr. Charles (choo choo) Jones, Sgt. Robert Easley, Sgt. Gleghorn, and Mrs. Roosevelt Jones.

Students With a Purpose (S.W.A.P.) came up with another original Friday nite. Would you believe a Hobo Party . . . Mrs. Nita McGlothen, Ruth Bell and many other members are really knocking themselves out to assist the youths of West Las Vegas in building a constructive activity group. The Hobo Party had to be a success with the very talented congo drummer Ebony and his talented group entertaining. The party really got under way when a group of five hobos came in, they called themselves the Band of Mess and mess they were. Galloping in dressed as a sloppy cowboy was Alice Harris, and with long flowing curls and hot pants, a half a guitar with no strings was hobo Roosevelt James escorting him was his wife Alberta James dressed in a silk mohair suit, foo man chu moustache, and bongos with no tops. Charles Jones dressed as Big Indian Chief was part

JERRY LEWIS TELETHON

The grand-daddy of telethons, Jerry Lewis' Labor Day Weekend extravaganza which last year racked up a staggering $8,364,510, in contributions for Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, will be seen here over KLAS TV, Channel 8.

The roster of performers lined up for the show by Producer Eric Lieber already reads like a Who's Who of Show Business. Lieber who dislikes taped shows as much as Lewis does, has arranged for "live" pick-ups from Los Angeles for motion picture stars, from Las Vegas for the greats playing in Hotel Clubs, from Nashville for country music artists, and from New York for the greats in the Theatre. "There will be a minimum of tapes and films," Lieber said. "Ours will be a live show. That's what people like about a Jerry Lewis Telethon. They like to participate. How can you participate with something in a can?"

The complexities and problems of a telethon might boggle the minds of others, but not of Lieber and the folks at MDAA who have been doing telethons with great success for years. With such success, in fact, the eight million dollars-plus raised last year inspired the dream of a telethon as the means of clearing up a big political party deficit!

For the third straight year Hughes Television will network the annual super-spectacular.

Funds raised by Jerry Lewis on his Annual Labor Day Telethons are spent of MDAA's scientific research program, and in providing services to patients and their families.

of the band with his instrument a snare drum with no snare and no head, and yours truly Dotti dressed as a fella beard and all played a mean upsidedown trumpet with no mouthpiece, the brass section, but for some unknown reason Ebony wouldn't let the Band of Mess set in. S.W.A.P. . . is a very worth while organization and could certainly use more adult support so give them a call they're listed.

Dropped in the Drum Shop on Maryland Parkway the other day, and rapped with Martin Mahoney. Martin a boss drummer has a group called Maker. Makin up Maker is Martin on drums, Robin Freeman plays guitar, and John pucket plays bass.
