Bumped into two of the most enjoyable people I've met in a long time. Late watchers bartender STAN(do you fiil around) RESSLER and lovely cocktail waitress BEVERLY COOPER. This dynamic duo is certainly an asset to the already swingin' Flame on the Strip.

Don't miss ERNI MARSHALL'S 1st newsy column since returning to Vegas, in that other paper out on the runway, lets see...oh yes' I think it's called PANORAMA.

Dotti would really like to know, and if you have any idea please tell me; why is it those politicians seeking office always seek out the preachers in black communities to run the campaign offices in the ole (GHETTO)? Are they so far behind times or just mis-informed? I think they still believe the black preacher controls the community from the pulpit comes every Sunday or pot luck.

North Las Vegas Police Department received an urgent complaint from one of it's citizens. It seems, one of the white neighbors PANICKED because a 10 year old black child threw a pop can on their lawn. On the spot was ADAMS 21 and 60. These officers were very nice and agreed if the whites and blacks in the neighborhoods tried they could communicate (the neighbors lived right across the street). The story ended another child had thrown the can on the lawn, and the little black boy picked it up. A little communication between the white and black neighbors would have made it possible for the officers, ADAMS 21 and 60, to be where they were more needed, and saved a lot of wasted time, paper and paperwork for the department.

A well deserved salute for FAY MULLINS. FAY successfully obtained funds from the City of North Las Vegas, when she met with the Council members. Mrs. MULLINS was granted $5,000 for her youth program. FAY'S presentation was equally as beautiful as her cause.

EARNEST and LOUISE WEAKS of Los Angeles spent an eventful 30 days traveling over the country. The places they visited are just too numerous to mention. The WEAKS stopped in Vegas long enough to visit with sister GEORGIA STREETER. They will return to LA., September 5th. Wow' how lucky some people can be.

Dove Season starts Friday

Take that scattergun from its off-season hideaway, oil it up, and get ready for the dove season opener that starts on September 1 throughout Nevada.

Hunters of this swift-flying migrant can expect birds to be scattered as a result of recent storms with prospects of hunting in the desert areas good this year. Nevada Fish and Game officials report that cooler weather in northern areas has triggered the yearly migration of doves to warmer climates in the south.

In Clark and Nye Counties, the bag limit of 10 daily and 20 in possession can include the white-winged species as well as the more common mourning dove. Hunting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset with the season scheduled to close October 20.

Only shotguns incapable of holding more than three shells, two in the magazine and one in the chamber, are legal for hunting doves as for all other migratory birds.

Sportsmen are advised to familiarize themselves with the recently passed county ordinances restricting discharge of firearms and to cooperate with farm and ranch owners before venturing onto private lands.

raise $2,000 by April for the Afro American Unity Festival. The group has a Luau scheduled for September 16th at 501 Lass Circle, everyone is invited.

Just don't know how to start tellin' the readers about the folks the rains washed in all the way from Los Angeles. Drippin' wet and all wind blown, but ready to party was JAMES ALLEN and wife CHRISTINE. When CHRIS is on a set there's no way it could possibly be dull. Washed along with the ALLENS was MARTHA HARRIS and JACKIE JOHNSON. These lovely ladies teamed up and belted out a few songs that rocked the party.

Happened to be on a set and while sitting ther sippin' my Black Russian, three groovy guys strolled in all decked out in those bad MOYO (RAP HATS). The super cool dudes that were sportin' the hats were ED (SNOOKY) HARDWELL, JOE McDOWELL, and JOHN (BLUE DIAMOND).

CHRIS HARDWELL is a young man to keep a watchful eye on, because he is definitely going places. CHRIS plays lead guitar and if you just heard him and didn't see him you'd swear it was the ole' master of blues himself, MR. B.B. KING. Heard CHRIS will be teamin' up with the MOYO RAPPERS.

OLYMPIC FLAG WAVING -- Bank of American Connie Swan is all smiles and curves as she displays the Olympic banner in salute to Uncle Sam's finest athletes who are in Munich in quest of gold. A total of 123 nations will participate in the Olympic August 26-September 10. B of A travelers cheques' customers have helped raise funds for our athletes the past 18 months; every time they purchased travelers cheques, the bank gave a portion of the commission to the U. S. Olympic team.

The aim is for the largest single contribution in the history of U. S. involvement (to launch the promotion the bank contributed $130,000.) Of interest to you statistically-minded sports fans, Ms. Swan's measurements, as shown in this unusual travelers cheques bikini, are an Olympic 36-26-36 -- and isn't banking fun these days!
