"TV 3 Community Camera"

KORK-TV's hour-long Community Affairs program "Community Camera" opens the fall season, Saturday, September 16, with a seven-way discussion of the behavior of Southern Nevadans who profess some religious belief. The program's host, John Howe, said the program will not be about religion, but about how people act in society as a result of religion. Guests in the program will include leaders in Methodist, Catholic, Episcopal, Seventh Day Adventist, and Baha'i disciples. "Community Camera" replaces last season's "Every Tuesday" and will appear each Saturday at 6:30 PM. During the year, the program will feature appearances by Las Vegas Citizens, on a variety of topics affecting life in Southern Nevada.

CRANFORD CRAWFORD ASSEMBLY District No. 7

Your support of me during the Primary Election was beautiful. Thank you!

Your continued support of me in November for the General Election will insure our efforts to make District 7 a better community.

My sincere appreciation,
Cranford Crawford
