

This didn't work...

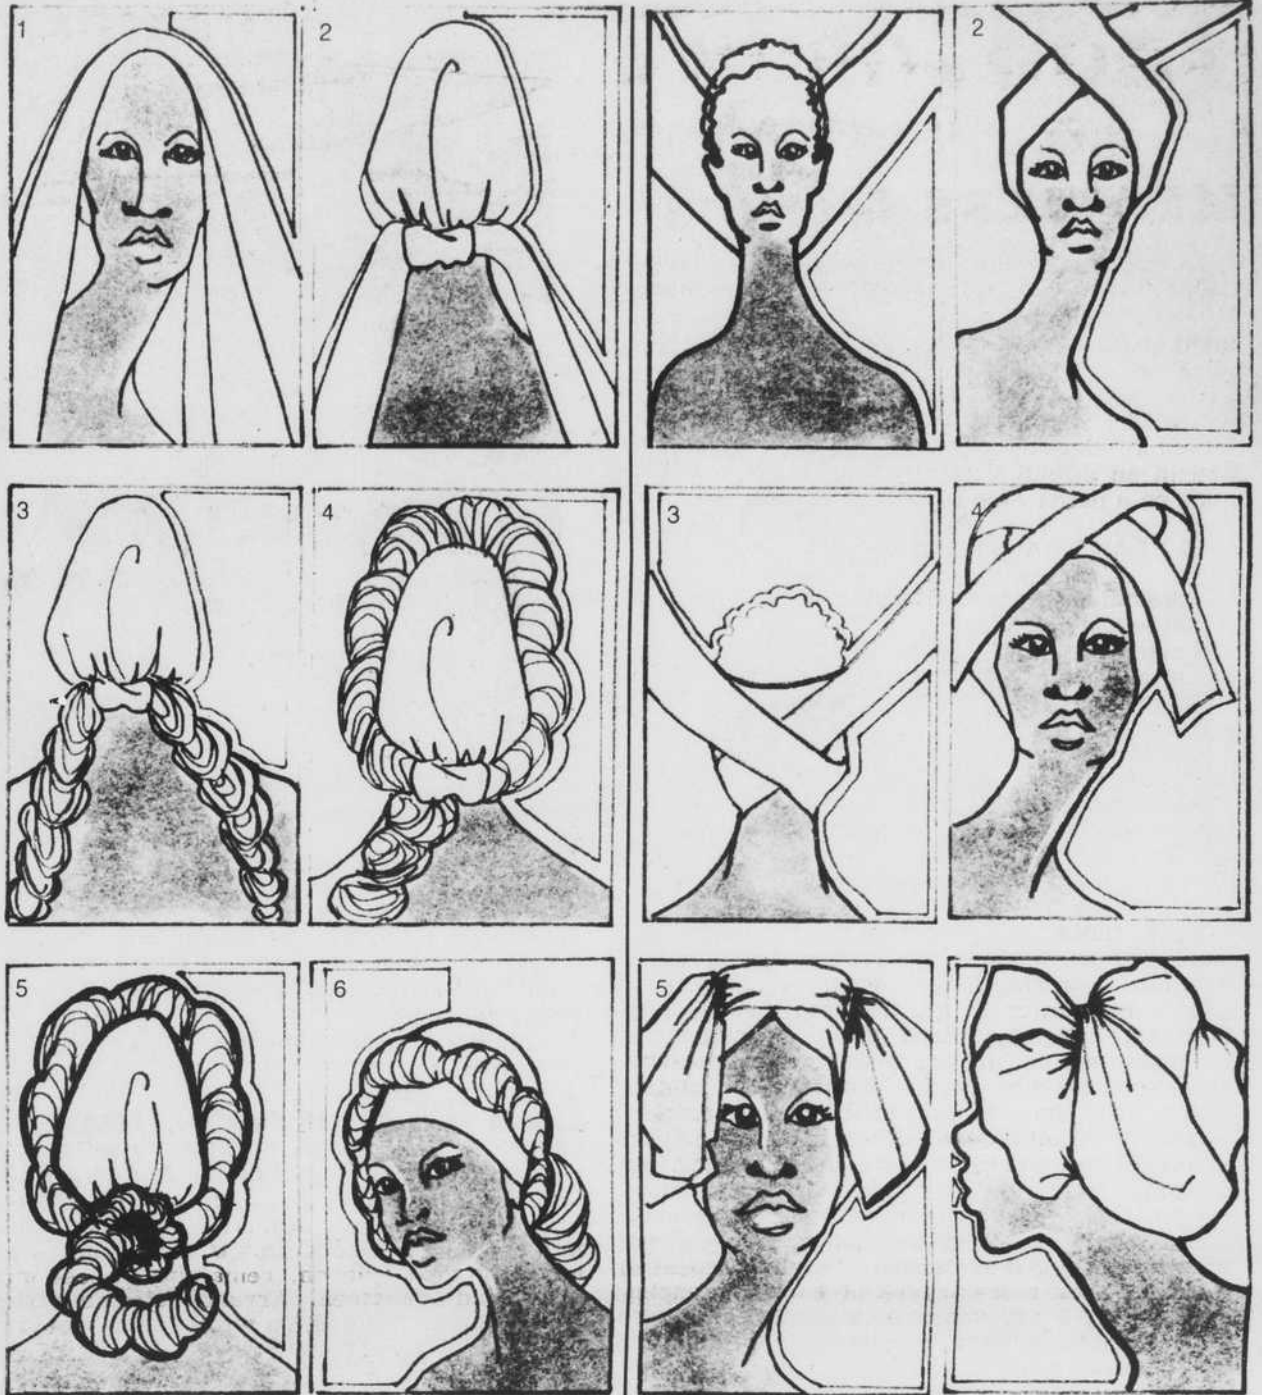

This early air conditioner—fitted to a hole in the wall—drew the fresh night air through a filter to the sleeper. But so many risers got headaches from banging their heads on the overhead air vent that It didn't work...

but this does

Medicare benefits

Medicare is health care protection for almost everyone 65 and over as well as eligible workers of any age who become severely disabled. For more information about Medicare, call, write, or visit any social security office.

PINK COILED GELÉ

Begin with three yards of 44-45 inch wide fabric. Fold in half lengthwise. 1. Center on forehead, wrap to the back. 2. Tie like a scarf in a knot. 3. Twist ends into tight coils. 4. Bring one end around top of head and tuck in at the side. 5. Circle the other coiled end round and round to make like a chignon. 6. Tuck under. Designed by Suzette Johnson with 100% Trevira polyester by Bloomsburg.

SIDE PUFF GELÉ

Start with three yards of 58-60 inch fabric. Fold in half lengthwise. 1. Center fabric at the nape of the neck. 2. Wrap to the front crisscrossing in a V at forehead. 3. Wrap to the back, crisscrossing again. 4. Come back to front and tie. 5. Take fabric ends and fan them out. Tuck them under the first part wrapped, to make the soft puffs. Created by Pat Jackson in red Trevira polyester jersey by Soptra Mills.
