

We've Been WONDERING

- WHY That certain past middle-aged dude that married a lady that was more than young enough to be his daughter and after the the break-up is now walking around asking himself why? don't check the saying of Austin O'Malley (quote) "You cannot weld cake-dough to cast iron, nor a girl to an old man" (unquote).
- WHY Certain ones that are buzzing about the change that has come over a certain brother, and how chicken he has become since making it big don't turn their thinking back to when they first met Mr. Instant Big. Mr. Big has been chicken all along, and making it big just brought the s--t out.
?????
- WHY El Tricko Dicko reminds us of Adolph Hitler. Could it be because He (El Tricko) comes on like one of the Fuhrer quotes from "Mein Kampf" like if you want the sympathy of broad masses then you must tell them the crudest and most stupid things. (unquote)
?????
- WHY The three players that unloaded their nightly take on the strip green felt and when they made it to the West-end didn't have enough to pay their bar tab and the barkeep in order to keep his gig had to spring from his tin cup don't get the message, like; If you can't pay, then don't play.
- WHY A certain supposed-to-be mellow dude join with the very ones (that have since the beginning of time, have tried to keep us down) that are now trying to stop a progressive group of brothers from developing a shopping center. Could the real reason be his new "sometime" associates have p----d in his face and made him believe that it is rain.
?????
- WHY The sequences of 21-22-23-24-34-35-36-37, and 29-39-49-56-66-67-78-79 are are supposed to be lucky for Aries, Taurus and Gemini.
?????
- WHY The Exalted Ruler of the Elks, namely gentleman Josh, don't take time out from shuffling the paste boards and write the happenings of the Moose. Could the reason be that he hasn't, is that he doesn't know what to do with a pen except to make an X.
?????
- WHY A certain Podner that's running for public office instead of promising everyone he talks to a different promise don't make one promise and stick to it, or could it be he is under the impression that no one holds a person to what he says while he's drunk, madly in love or running for office.m m m m m
- WHY The ding-a-ling bat that's making it with the husband of her best friend and to top it off is also copping with the husband's best friend, and is giving the proceeds to the best friends brother and has the gall to brag how cool she is don't take a good look in the mirror and ask herself whose doing what to whom and which.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE, from page 8

and begin at any time they are ready, work at their own pace, and complete the course requirements without the pressure of artificially imposed time restrictions," he said.

Classes currently offered in the open college include development English, reading techniques, GED preparation for the high school equivalency exam, business machines, business etiquette, telephone techniques for secretaries, and elementary, intermediate and advanced typing.

These classes provide individualized instruction in learning labs which are open days, evenings, and Saturday mornings, enabling students to conduct study at times best suited to their daily schedules and for as long as necessary.

Instrucy utilizes a variety of methods, including tape cassettes, film strips, programmed textbooks, frequent conferences with the instructor, peer tutoring, and continuing self-evaluation.

The development English program covers the fundamentals of written communication and involves self-paced projects related to mass media usage of the language. Particular attention is given to the individual student's specific language problems.

Students seeking preparation for the GED high school equivalency exam can select instruction in correctness and effectiveness of expression, general mathematics, and reading. The reading program stresses both comprehension and speed.

Typing, business machines, business etiquette, and telephone techniques are offered as part of the college's career program in secretarial science.

In addition to these classes, individualized materials are available for students wanting to develop adequate study skills for college-level success.
