Lurie seeks Commission Seat

Ron Lurie, Candidate for City Commission #2, discussed the issues of the campaign with over 250 volunteer workers.

Lurie, who worked for two years at Food Fair in the West Owens shopping center, reminded his workers that in business he had always left his door open to everyone to discuss their problems. He pledged to continue that practice as a City Commissioner.

Ron, with his father Art, and other supports, built the West Owens Shopping Center because they believed everyone should have an opportunity to have fine stores near their homes. Ron and Art started the first free retail clerks school in West Las Vegas and many of their students found good paying jobs all over the city as retail clerks and managers.

Today, Ron Lurie is a working executive for a locally owned discount department stores. This locally owned discount chain has always supported boys clubs and other West Las Vegas youth activities.

Lurie is the only candidate to take a stand on a very important issue facing all Blacks. On the June 5th ballot there is a question which could lead to City Commissioners running out of wards.

"With the city divided into wards," Lurie said, "The people could really get to know their (see LURIE, page 12)

We've Been WONDERING

WHY? those that bad-mouth the "VOICE" when a news item or "paid" political advertising appear that turn them off, don't get the message, like; newspapers don't make news they report news, and without advertising there would hardly be any newspapers.

WHY? when a certain player was asked why he was sporting a different hairdo, he retorted, (quote) mah woman pays me and ah wears mah hair lak she wants me to, and iffen you'll pay me ah'll wear it lak you wont it. (unquote) So now we know.

WHY? a certain individual that many in-the-know have tagged as a weakling, fool and a born loser don't stop trying to impress those that have nothing to offer him but criticism and disrespect, could the reason be, that he is so unhipped he don't know an insult from a joke.

WHY? Someone didn't hip us that sleeping with the window open and having the air condition unit operating at the same time could make one's eye swell up to the size of an egg. Well that's what a particular doll that works in a strip office claimed happened to her orb. (We are not saying she would do this but some people tell the weakest lie to the strongest folks).

WHY? a certain long-time "Uncle Tom Fuzz" that's making the rounds (shinning them back from ear to ear) trying to sell his "Charlie" Pard to Blacks and at the same time puts his Bro down that's trying for the same political gig don't realize that the same fate that befell Lt. Larry Bolden could befall him, also it has been proven when the "Charlies" in his bag pats the likes of him on the back THEY ARE TRYING TO FIND A SOFT SPOT TO STICK A SHIV.

WHY? the sequences of 1-10-11-12-21-23-30-31. and 39-40-49-50-51-52-62-63. Are supposed to be lucky for Leo, Virgo and Libra.

WHY? A certain noble upright gentleman and his interesting, intelligent and attractive spouse let themselves be sucked into a wife swapping party with some perfect strangers and for some unexplained reason wouldn't back out and after the party went stone to war with each other don't cool it and chalk-up what happened to a pleasant or bad experience (you take your pick) Life can be beautiful in the world today.

WHY? Mr. Instant Hipped came so unglued when he was crossed by his long-time Podner. After all the two of them have crossed the cross and a professional crosser has to cross regularly just to stay in practice.

WHY? Under the HOOVER administration the entire COUNTRY was in a state of (what the Powers-That-Be-Called) a DEPRESSION, and under EISENHOWER'S (live and let live) TENURE it was called a RECESSION, and now El Tricko Dickeyo has hung tags like; phase 1, phase 2, and CUTBACK on this sorry mess. Whatever they name it, call it or refer to it as, it only adds up to Minorities having the door of opportunity slammed in their faces..... Henry "P" For Puzzled
