

SUPER SPRING SPECIALTY SUCCESSFUL FOR JO MACKEY SCHOOL

Last week the Jo Mackey School Music Department, chaired by Mrs. Grace McGlothen outdid itself as it presented a most successful and most outstanding spring musical baring the theme "SUPER SPRING SPECIALTY IN MUSIC". The school band directed by Sidney Greene and the chorus directed by Mrs. Grace McGlothen were better than ever received standing ovations. Mr Herschel Williams-principal said that this concert was the best presentation that he has witnessed in all of his years of association with the Jo Mackey School.

There were dances choreographed by Mrs. McGlothen and students who participated in the annual youth fair winning top awards and students from Mrs. B. Whittington's guitar classes also performed.

Guest drummer was Master Van McGlothen a student of Jim Bridger Junior High School, and guest guitarist was Mr. Fred Hall—a local speech therapist. All of these attractions added greatly to the richness and over-all grandeur of the program, not excluding the elaborate set decoration designed by all of the Jo Mackey School teacher aides.

During the past week the chorus and band have performed daily before hundreds of prospective students scheduled to attend Jo Mackey school next year.

Teachers who also participated in the orientation of these students were Mrs. Nancy Brock, Mrs. Evelyn O'Gwin, Mrs. Arlene Roberts, Mrs. Emma Nash, Mr. David Coleman, and Mr. Ira Kimball.

Other closing activities at the school will be commencement exercises and the annual Watermelon feast launched by the very dynamic principal-Mr. Herschel Williams.

Mary Smith, Nancy Webb, Betty Kincaid, Leona Dixon, and Sharon McLaurin.
