

Rev. Bennett Attends International Conference

The Reverend Marion D. Bennett, pastor of Zion Methodist Church for the past thirteen (13) years, has been selected (as one of the outstanding church leaders in the country) by the World Council of Churches by inviting him to attend the Ecumenical Institute in Celigny, Switzerland from June 14-27, 1973. He will be among fifty (50) other participants from all over the world to take part in a leadership training session entitled "New Forms of Communities-the Marginal Church." This program will be an attempt to engage the participants from traditional type churches and those from innovative religious institutions to discover new ways to enhance their religious missions. This will be Reverend Bennett's third trip to Europe to attempt to grasp additional insight into religious doctrine and his fourth trip abroad.

REVEREND BENNETT

Call Suicide Prevention Center 736(HELP)4537

Have you ever had to call for someone in a crisis? If you did, aren't you glad there was someone to answer the phone?

How do you qualify to be a phone volunteer? What is the suicide prevention center? Why is it a worthwhile volunteer service? Why is it necessary to get special training in order to help a person who is suicidal?

The answers to these and many more questions will be explained in a series of Seminars on Suicidology to be held the week of June 4th thru 8th at a central location in the Las Vegas Valley. People who are free to answer calls during the day are particularly needed, and your anonymity is assured.

The Suicide Prevention Center is a local, non-profit, 3 year old organization composed entirely of volunteers.

The seminars provide factual interesting and stimulating training by experienced professional and lay person.

Call 736 (HELP) 4357 and ask for Ernest about further information.
