I don't know whether you remember back as far as the 1950's when the Town Tavern was the jumpin' spot of West Las Vegas, and the band that made it jump was called "BILLY TOLLES & THE VIBRATORS'. I had often wondered how these fellas were makin' it? Well I was visiting sunny southern California last week and happened to check out a swinging place called 'The Name of The Game', and on the marquis I saw the name DAVE HOLDEN, and I was wondering if it was the same DAVE, I knew in Vegas with the Vibrators...well it sure was so me and my faithful road buddy CARLOT-TA, stopped in for a quick scotch and milk, and sure nuff it was DAVE, looking and sounding, (if that's possible), better than he did back in the 50's. DAVE told us BILLY, is in Denver Colorado, and we were sorry to hear TOMMY, the drummer, passed away about two years ago. If you happen to be in the L.A. area on the corner of West 58th. stop in and listen to DAVE, and his group really get down, he's packin' em in six nites a week.

I want you to check BOBBI, out for yourselves, and I'm sure you will agree with ... the lovely lady is superb'.

-0-Congratulations to BOOKER, and DELORES RIDGWAY, proud parents of AISHA RIDGWAY, who made her arrival last week tipped the scaled at 7 lbs. 8 ozs. AISHA is the first born to the RIDGWAYS, after eight years of marriage.

I met a man a couple of weeks ago veree deserving of the name "MR. Personality", and that mans name is JOHN CRAWLY, hailing from New York City. Saturday nite a champagne breakfast birthday party was given at the Sahara Hotel in the Space Center in JOHN'S honor, and people from all over the U.S. and Germany attended. Startlett COOKIE COOPER, flew in from New York to handle the vocal chores, and captivated the party attenders with her version of "The Man I Love, Good Morning Heartache, What a Little Moonlight Can Do, and many others. Might I add the group called "THE RAPPERS'', did a splendid job of backing COOKIE, on her vocal selections, and then played numbers that had everyone out on the dance floor really doin' it. There was very unique fashion show featuring fashions in fur, and the models were picked from the audience to model the fur stoles, capes, coats, and maxi-coats. The party was beautiful and the bubbling champagne flowed on into late late hours of the morning. -0-

T BAR T RANCH SUPPER

Mrs. Thelma (Toms) Morlock hosted her Gamma Phi Delta Sorority, Beta Eta Theta Chapter sisters, at her T Bar T Ranch, Friday evening. Following the Sorority meeting Thelma and her husband Lloyd entertained members, spouses and friends with a garden buffet supper.

Miss Hannah Brown was toasted with happybirthday wishes - but as most - she only responded to the "how old are you" verse -she was not getting older - only better."

The buffet loaded with goodies fit for kings and queens, was catered by Mrs. Lowe -and rightly so because Thelma and Lloyd made everyone feel like Kings and Queens.
