the San Francisco NAACP some years ago and helped to obtain ordinances for fair housing and fair employment practices. Also his paper, which has added the Metro Reporter newspaper group, serving the whole bay area, including Oakland, Berkeley, Richmond, and San Francisco, conducts forums to better acquaint the people with issues confronting them and Africans. He has consulted with each President since Truman.

Dr. Goodlett serves on a number of local, national, and international boards. Among these are: the National Committee on Africa, the World Council of Peace, and the American Society of African Culture, and the San Francisco Council of Boy Scouts of America.

Bob Harrington The Chaplain Of Bourbon Street

LAS VEGAS -- The Rev. Bob Harrington, internationally known as "The Chaplain of Bourbon Street," today announced that he will be conducting an 8-Day Crusade at the Convention Center beginning Sunday, July 22 and going through Sunday, July 29. Services will be held nightly at 8:00 p.m.

Mr. Harrington, called by many as "the most colorful and unusual Evangelist of the 20th Century" said he was delighted at the chance to conduct the Crusade.

"We are going to let the redeemed of the Lord say so. These services will allow God's people a chance to stand up for their Saviour. It will afford an opportunity for those spiritually lost-sinners - to get their lives right with the Lord," he asserted.

Mr. Harrington, who opened his Ministry in New Orleans in 1961, travels 150,000 miles a year and is America's fastest rising Evangelist.

"I would rather be known as a soul-winner for the Lord than anything else. The only person the Bible says has wisdom are those who lead sinners to the Lord."

Jack Price, director of music for the Ministry will lead the Crusade Choir. Price, who has recorded many record albums will also provide solo music.

Evangelist, Mr. Harrington is the subject of numerous books and magazine articles. He has appeared on many nation-wide television shows and also has his own television show, "The Chaplain of Bourbon Street."

"I think one of the biggest problems in America today is not the Communist outside taking over the country but the complacency inside that has already taken over. God's people need to come out of the closet into the living room."

Admission to each service is free. We conduct the services on an interdenominational level. "Everyone is welcome!"

The sin-busting, devil-chasing, Evangelist stays booked-up 2 years in advance.

VA FACTS

There are now more than 29 million veterans, who, with dependents and survivors, comprise nearly one-half of U.S. population, the Veterans Administration reported recently.

While veterans with nonservice connected disabilities are eligible for Veterans Administration hospital treatment on a bed available basis, beds are always available to veterans with service connected disabilities.

Miss Black Teenage America.
 Working for what she believes in...
 "To help my people, help themselves."

Cynthia Lewis is just fifteen. And she's Miss Black Teenage America. Her goals are solidly set. To become a lawyer and a good one. "Because this will give me the chance to help my people help themselves." She's a prize-winning orator, honor student, young civic leader, whose advice to all American teenagers is clear. "Get involved in civic and community projects and help people who are less fortunate." Pepsi-Cola is proud to be a part of the Miss Black Teenage America Pageant. And congratulates Cynthia Lewis... a part of the Pepsi Generation who has a lot to give... and gives it.
