

Steve & Eydie to tape television special from Caesars Palace

Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme, acknowledged to be the most entertaining, enchanting husband-wife act in the lively arts, will star in a 60-minute television special for the NBC Television Network to be taped in the Circus Maximus theatre-restaurant at Caesars Palace on Tuesday, July 31.

The show, titled "Steve & Eydie...On Stage", will be aired on NBS-TV Sunday, September 16, from 9:30-10:30 p.m. (EST). Steve and Eydie's guest stars will be Lucille Ball and Sergio Mendes & Brasil '77.

Marty Pasetta is the producer-director. Steve and Eydie have starred at Caesars Palace as headliners nine times, so utilizing the resort-hotel as a "studio" is not unusual. The special is one of a long list of television originations from Caesars Palace, which boasts more TV and film emanations from its premises than any other hotel in the world.

The Frigidaire Corporation is sponsoring the music-comedy show.

The Tuesday Circus Maximus taping will be held from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m., with audience seating at 11:30 a.m. Free tickets for the show will be distributed at the hotel's Keno lounge Tuesday from 9:30 a.m. on a first-come first-served basis.

NANCE, from page 8

interims worked at the Gaslight Club. Nance combines instrumental genius with a flair for showmanship. Both as instrumentalist, singer and personality, he generates uncommon warmth.

On this program, assisted by pianist Earl Washington, bassist Charles "Truck" Parham (an old Chicago associate), and drummer Hillard Brown (an occasional Ellingtonian), Nance performs "Take the 'A' Train" and "C Jam Blues" from the Ellington canon, pays tribute to Louis Armstrong with "Black and Blue," and plays a soulful violin solo on Gershwin's "Summertime." He also does "It Don't Mean a Thing" and "Sunny."

"Just Jazz" was produced for PBS by WTTW/Chicago.

FREE IMMUNIZATIONS

Free polio, measles, and DPT immunizations will be offered from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Wednesday, August 1, and Thursday, August 2, at a District Health Department mobile unit parked at the Civic Center Shopping Center located at East Lake Mead at Civic Center Drive.

Parent permission is required for children to receive shots. For further information, call the District Health Department.

Las Vegas 15/20% Discount Club

Did you know you are paying $150.00 for a suit that would have cost you $85.00 six months ago and $1.19 lb. for hamburger meat that was $.79 lb. six months ago? Ridiculous "No", this is ridiculous your President put a freeze on retail prices at this inflationary level. Why freeze them now, after all it couldn't get much worse most people couldn't AFFORD it six months ago but now they can't even BUY it.

Do your monthly purchases total about $500? Well, you can save up to $100.00 of that by becoming a member of a club for retailers known as the Las Vegas 15/20% Discount Club. This private club of hundreds of retailers trying to fight inflation as best they can. And would like to pass the savings onto you. Members of this club can shop at any of the many businesses and receive discounts of 15-20% off on merchandise or services rendered by the merchants listed in their discount directory.

Only $12.50 a year can make you a member of this club. As a member you will receive a personal membership card and a complete discount directory, containing a list of all merchants participating in this program. Not to mention the extra cash you'll be saving.
