On Display

Whether you are voting for the first time or the fiftieth time, the experience will be a little different this year. Polling places throughout Clark County will be utilizing new Votomatic voting machines, making ballot mis-counts virtually impossible. The action of voting itself will create an individual computer. Demonstrator models of the Votomatic machines are on display at all four branches of the Clark County Library District.

Locations include the Downtown Library, 400 E. Mesquite, the Decatur Library, 720 S. Decatur, the West Las Vegas Library, 1402 N. See DISPLAY, page 14)
