JOB FILLING HOTLINE--Employers listing jobs with the Nevada Employment Security Department's Las Vegas office now can bypass the busy job office switchboard and dial a job order-taker direct. Watching, as a staffer Judith Hickman, right, takes an employer's job specifications over the new hotline, is job officer chief Charles Smith. Faster, more efficient service

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FOR AIR CONDITIONING FIRMS

The Department of HUD is extending an open invitation to all Air Conditioning Firms who may be interested in bidding on a contract for pulling, storing, checking operation, doing minor repairs, and re-installing of Air Conditioners and Evaporative Coolers on HUD owned properties, to an informational conference on Tuesday, September 10, 1974, at the Memphis Room in the Showboat Hotel, starting at 10:00 a.m.

Among the items to be discussed will be work to be performed, how to submit a bid, and qualifications of bidders. We are in the process of preparing a bid package, and need input from persons familiar with all phases of air conditioning installation and repair, in order to make our requirements realistic.

Invitation to bid will be prepared in the near future and all attendees that indicate interest in bidding will be invited to bid at that time.
