

Elmer R. Rusco
Box 8947 Univ. Station
Reno, Nevada 89507

NEVADA'S
TOP
WEEKLY

***** 12TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION *****

LAS VEGAS VOICE

Vol. 12, No. 1

October 3, 1974

LAWRENCE ALBERT TAKES OVER HELM AS NEW PUBLISHER

'VOICE' GEARS FOR NEW COMMUNITY CHALLENGE

LAWRENCE 'BIG AL' ALBERT

ANNIVERSARY PARTY SET FOR THURSDAY AT HIDEAWAY

Lawrence "Big Al" Albert, Voice Publisher is hosting a 12th Anniversary Party at his "HIDEAWAY LOUNGE", 900 West Bonanza

Thursday evening starting at 6 p.m.
The Public is invited.

Come out and help us celebrate.

Rancho Circle Theatre Gives to NAACP and Poor People Pulling Together

Rancho Circle Theatre owner, Glen Walker is shown presenting checks to Ms. Eleanor Walker, NAACP President and Ms. Erma O'Neal PPPT President, in the amount of $1,297 dollars each as their share of the proceeds from the Western Premiers of "Amazing Grace."

The Walkers have been giving free passes to local Black high school and university students and community recreation teams, since the theatre opened.

Moms Mabley and Stars a Hit in West Coast Fete 'Amazing Grace

The Walkers believe in supporting Black causes and businesses. They were further encouraged in their efforts to support Black businesses when the VOICE publisher bought the largest block of tickets for the fund raising event. The $250 dollar block not only topped those bought by Black businesses but white businesses as well.

SANDRA McILVEEN, Assistant to the Publisher

PAPER VIEWS NEW ROLE

"We want this paper to be meaningful to the Black Community," commented Lawrence Albert, VOICE Publisher. He has set as its aim to become heavily involved. He says it is to inform and seek out the inequities of the minorities. It will also highlight the accomplishments of the Black men and women and

( See VIEWS, page 3 )

PAUL C. SMITH, Managing Editor

ORIGINAL DEFECTIVE