O YE THAT ARE FOOLISH, YE HAVE A NAME TO BE WISE! Wherefore do ye wear the guise of shepherds, when inwardly ye have become wolves, intent upon My flock?

Matthews delivering the sermon of the evening. We hope this program will catch on. The Now Singers were their special guests.

Rev. Cleveland Sets Confab

Had a conference with Attorney Robert Reid, who is as handsome as ever, but a little disturbed about some unpleasant rumors that are out. To set the record straight, Attorney Reid stated that he was in the hospital for one week with a bladder infection. He further stated he has several sisters and one brother, but none of his relatives live in Las Vegas. He also stated that he was still on medication but doing fine now.

Sunday, October 20th, is Youth Day at Bethel Baptist Church, Rev. Jessie Wesley, Pastor. Try to come to church or you will miss a treat. The young Rev. Dwight Matthews will deliver the sermon of the morning. This man has been preaching for three months. You won't believe that. Our hats are off to Rev. Sam Roberson and his combo for doing such a wonderful job Sunday morning in the absence of our pastor who was out of town on a hunting trip. Hope he brings a 5-pointer home.

The fabulous Now Singers thank the community for their prayers. The program was a great success. The Singers appeared in a concert along with the Senior Choir of Southern Missionary Baptist Church, Rev. Kelley Key, Pastor, Los Angeles, California. The Singers' next concert will be at the Calvary Baptist Church in Indio, California in November. Rev. Simmons is the Pastor. Bethel Baptist Church and Victory Baptist Church should be proud of these young people. They sang out their soul.
