TRICK OR TREAT

Halloween is one of the most fun party times, for the young and old. Other than collecting treats, youngsters gather money for worthwhile organizations. Although it would be awfully nice to make dozens of nourishing cookies for all trick or treaters who ring your door bell. But at least for your own and other quite special children, here are some lip-smacking recipes which also will offer a lot of good nutrition. Lots of us remember the ole Halloween of soaping windows, turning over out-houses, and many other things we got whippings for. "We've come a long way, Baby" as the new saying goes.

HOBGOBLIN RAISIN MERINGUES

- 1 (3 oz.) pkg. orange gelatin
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 2/3 cup egg whites (5 to 7)
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 (3-1/2 oz.) can flaked coconut

In a small bowl, combine gelatin, sugar and salt. In a larger mixer bowl beat egg whites until soft peaks form. Gradually beat in gelatin, sugar mixture. Continue until peaks are very stiff. Stir in raisins and coconut. Drop by tablespoons, 1 inch apart on greased and floured baking sheet. Bake at 275 degrees for 40 minutes. Turn off heat and let stand in oven over night. Remove from baking sheet and store in covered container. Makes about 4 dozen.

RAISIN CREAM CHEESE GEMS

- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 (8 oz. pkg.) cream cheese
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 (1 lb. 4-1/2 oz.) pkg. yellow cake mix
- 1-1/4 cups seedless raisins
- 1/4 cup shredded coconut
- 1/4 cup chopped walnuts

Beat together butter, cream cheese, egg yolk and vanilla. Blend in dry cake mix, 1/3 at a time, mixing last portion by hand. Mix last raisins, coconut and walnuts. Drop by level tablespoons onto greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven at 350 degrees for about 15 minutes, or until lightly browned.

RIPE OLIVE HALLOWEEN MOUSSE

- 1-1/2 cups canned pitted ripe olives
- 3 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 2-1/2 cups cold water
- 2 (10 oz.) cans condensed cheddar cheese soup
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- 1/2 tsp. worchestershire sauce
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- Dash cayenne
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 3 cups diced ham

Cut olives into wedges. Sprinkle gelatin on water to soften. Place over low heat. Stir in soup, mayonnaise, lemon juice, worchestershire sauce, salt and cayenne. Cool until slightly thickened. Fold in olives, celery and ham. Turn into 10 cup mold. Chill until firm.

WITCHES BREW

- 1 cup lemon juice
- 2/3 cup molasses
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 2 qts. water
- 2 sticks cinnamon
- 10 whole cloves
- orange slices
- cloves for garnish

In large saucepan combine lemon juice, molasses, sugar and water. Add cinnamon and cloves. Simmer for 10 minutes. Strain. Pour into punch bowl. Float orange slices with cloves.

BETSY TERRY SPEAKS

My apologies to Mr. Eric Poole for overlooking him in my column last week. Mr. Poole was the drummer down front last Sunday night when the children presented a Candle Light Musical at Bethel Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. Jesse Wesley. Mrs. Eva Poole, his mother, asked me to thank Charles English for the help he has given and still is giving her son. Mr. Poole is one of the youngest drummers around, and believe me, his drums are saying something for the Lord.

Mr. Bob Bailey and his Las Vegas Community Banquet Club will present the 3rd Annual Ministers Award Dinner Saturday, November 16, 1974 at the Zion Methodist Church Dining Hall, 2108 North Revere Avenue. Reverend Marion Bennett is Pastor.

Bennett is Pastor. All members are asked to buy a ticket and eat with your Pastors and show them how much you care. While you are enjoying your dinner, you will hear the Fabulous Now Singers, and others who will be named at a later date. Reverend M.E. Proby, Pastor of St. John Baptist Church, Colorado Springs, Colorado, will be the principle speaker. The public is invited to attend this affair. Donations are $3.50. Proceeds go to the Nurses Scholarship Fund. All ministers will receive an award of some kind.

The members of the Greater Fourth Baptist Church presented their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Printess Walker, their 19th Year Anniversary, for which they have been pastoring this church. Many churches, choirs and friends dropped by to wish Reverend Walker well. The sermon of the morning was delivered by Reverend S.P. Parks, Pastor of Community Baptist Church, Henderson, Nevada. Afternoon was something different, when Reverend Dorome Free and Reverend Dwight Matthews delivered sermonettes of the evening. All in all, it was a joyful day and we all wish Reverend and Mrs. Walker the best for years to come, for we will always remember him for his work in this community.

Had a chat with Reverend S.P. Parks and he informed me that the Ministers Conference is coming along fine. He stated that they had a meet-See, BETSY TERRY, Page 7

Hidden words of Baha'u'llah

O SON OF DESIRE! The learned and the wise have for long years striven and failed to attain the presence of the ALL-Glorious. Thou without the least effort didst attain thy goal, and without search hast obtained the object of thy quest.
