were sincere and objective. This paper also, in its efforts to inform it's readers fully of the strengths and shortcomings of the candidates, noted that some Blacks whose livelihood are dependent on Black support destroyed this paper's listed endorsements and in some cases under duress with those holding the copies.

Now we know where they are coming from. It was an attempted sell-out of those who needed the most support.

We are proud of our selections for the end result told the story. About 65% were winners. We are also proud because we did not betray our Black brothers and sisters. We were honest and did not fall victim to any pay-offs. Some of the Black candidates were financially supported by this paper even to the point of paying for their advertisements in the paper. Considerable expense was borne by the paper in setting up special parties where they would benefit in meeting their constituents, yet when the final election results were announced you could not find them nor were any words of gratitude expressed.

Let's look at the case of David Towell. Here's a strong NEDCO supporter and one who demonstrated equality by hiring Blacks in his office. While it was learned by this paper that his opponent declared that he would not necessarily hire any Blacks. It should also be noted that this opponent has never completed any term in office. This was another reason why this paper could not support what he stood for. We regret the Towell loss. Again, we hated to see the sell-out, and now we say again to those who turned us around: WHERE ARE YOU REALLY COMING FROM?

Party Tips

Having a party for the holidays, but few ideas for decorations; gifts to purchase for the person who has everything? In this year of shortages of money and supplies, the North Las Vegas Library would like to help you stretch your budget.

On Wednesday evening, November 6th at 7 p.m. in the library, 2300 Civic Center Dr., Ms. Jessie Metcalf and Ms. Ruth Marrion will present an exciting, free program on decorations and gifts you can make from discards.

For further information call the North Las Vegas Library, 649-2363.

VA Hints

Q--My GI Bill allowance from the Veterans Administration is two weeks late. What should I do?

A--If there's a Vet Rep (VA Representative) on your campus, check with him. Otherwise, write to the VA regional office which has your claim file, giving your name, claim number and address.

Q--Do husbands and widowers of female veterans have the same eligibility for Veterans Administration benefits as wives and widows of male veterans?

A--Yes. For purposes of VA benefits, the term "wife" includes husbands of female veterans and "widow" includes widowers of female veterans. (See PL 92-540, Oct. 1972.)

Q--Does the Veterans Administration pay anything toward costs of burial plots for veterans in private cemeteries in states which have no national cemeteries?

A--Yes. VA pays up to $150 in plot and interment costs of veterans not buried in national cemeteries. This benefit was authorized in June 1973 under PL 93-43.

CANCER DEATH RISE AMONG BLACKS TARGET OF AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

The facts have been gathered for years - cancer is rising sharply among black Americans - but when Howard University physicians put them together in a widely reported survey, the problem commanded national attention.

Even before the report, however, the American Cancer Society began organizing a Public Education campaign stressing to the hardest-hit populations that time is vital in saving lives from cancer.
