JANUARY 19
MARTIN LUTHER KING
SUNDAY

Dr. L. V. Booth, former president of Progressive National Baptist Convention, Inc. urged the major black denominations to observe "Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday," on January 19, 1975. This Sunday is now set aside for observance each Third Sunday in January by both the American Baptist Churches and the Progressive National Baptist Convention. He suggested:

"On this Sunday, let's begin Sunday School and continue throughout the day relating important incidents in Dr. King's life and urging our children and youth to pattern their lives after him and to achieve a higher standard of excellence." He said further, "in this day when heroes are lacking and models are needed, churches can greatly fulfill their mission by remembering Martin Luther King, Jr. the 'Apostle of Love and Non-Violence.'"

The Administration's policies will not work; it cannot be the cause of and at the same time cure inflation and recession. Nixon's policies helped to cause inflation - Ford's policies are extending the inflation.

The PUSH analysis is that the four chief causes of the current disastrous economic conditions are: waste; extravagance of the military budget; tax favors for the wealthy; the encouragement of monopolistic practices by the largest corporations.

This is a time for new creative moral leadership - the Black church which has always been in the forefront of the struggle for human rights is now reasserting its leadership; our communities are in disarray - our people are unemployed - our children are hungry. However, we cannot confine our leadership merely to the ethnic domain. We must function in the ETHICAL domain and seek to regenerate the coalition among all dispossessed and disenfranchised of our country. To that end, in the last three months, we
