REBELS WIN BOTH

By Dan Curtis

After two weeks of WCAC Conference play, the Rebels are now 4-0. This places the Rebels solely in possession of first place with a two-game lead.

After winning a squeaker from San Francisco, on Friday night, by a score of 77-75, the Rebels destroyed Santa Clara on Saturday, 100-79.

The most impressive victory had to be San Francisco, which was tabbed as the team to beat, at the beginning of the season.

With the sidelining of sophomore, Jackie Robinson, with a sprained ankle, the Rebels chances of defeating San Francisco and Santa Clara looked dim. However, making a few adjustments of personnel, and with the aggressive playing of B. Batts the Rebels were victorious in both events.

At half-time, the Rebels were trailing San Francisco by a score of 42-32, however, UNLV kept it's poise and came back to win over San Francisco 77-75.

With a team composed of four sophomores and one senior, the Rebels are beginning to find themselves. For such a young inexperienced team, the Rebels seem to have taken a tradition of winning from coach, Jerry Trakanian.

On Wednesday, the Rebels play host to the University of Reno, at Convention Center at 8:15 p.m. Reno is 0-4 in Conference play and should be an easy task for the Rebels.

With the consistent play of Ricky Sobers, Jackie Robinson, Eddie Owens, Glen Gonderzick, Lewis Brown, Robert Smith, and Boyd Batts, the Rebels are a cinch to win the WCAC, for the first time in the history of the school. The Rebels are a well-balanced team. Come out and support the Rebels. See you all at the game.

Hideaway Wins Again

The Hideaway basketball team, sponsored by Big "Al," did it again in whipping Fremont White, 67-49.

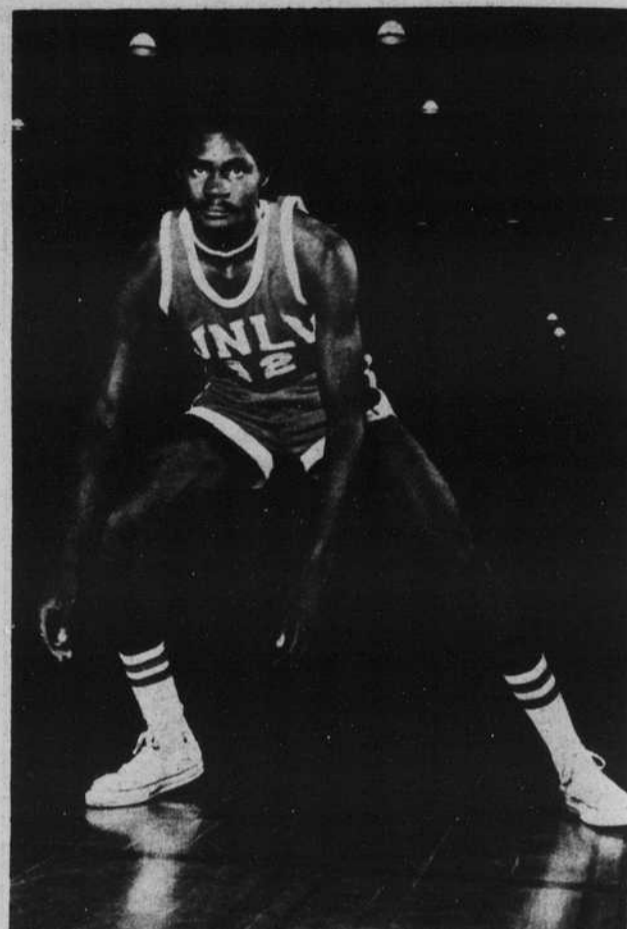

Behind the sharp shooting of F. Glasco and R. Sims, the Hideaway Gold easily won over Fremont White.

All games are played at Dula Memorial Center at 8:30 p.m. The fellows would love for the community to get out and support them.

The Hideaway Gold

has two fine coaches in Booker Burney and Mac Smith. Very few young men would donate such valuable time to the community. Brothers like Booker Burney and Mac Smith, are few and far between.

What the community needs is more action on their part and less talking. We have found action in Burney and Smith. Let's get out and give the coaches and the team our support.
