B L B IS

"B-L-B" launches a campaign against Black on Black Crime in Black Communities. "B-L-B" is a unifying slogan and song that will constantly lobby against Black on Black Crime.

We of "B-L-B" feel that you realize that there are times when we must pause and recognize some of the serious moments that are brought to us by the realities of life. This serious moment we are referring to is the escalating crime condition, that makes us all aware of its presence. Both well known, and unknown pioneers fought crime down through the yesterdays, there are individuals, groups, and organizations who are fighting the engulfing crime condition today.

And we are unanimous in saying that we feel both duty-bound and privileged to add our small voice to that of the millions of concerned people who are applying their efforts to the fight against today's crime condition. We would like to focus our attention on the crime segment that is closest to home, and to our hearts, and that is crime in the black communities, we are talking about Black on Black Crime, in black communities throughout America. Never in history, has the black community suffered the ratio of black on black crime as it suffers today...we are appealing directly to you black brothers and sisters, for there is no greater antidote to black on black crime than the true feeling of brotherly love for your black brother and sister and respect for your black self."
