REBELS WIN 1st ROUND

After easing past San Diego, 90-80 Saturday, at Tempe, Arizona, this Thursday, the Rebels play host to tough Arizona State in the NCAA West Basketball semi-finals at Portland, Oregon. On the same afternoon slate, UCLA meets the University of Montana.

In the pre-liminary game at Tempe, Arizona State barely edged out Alabama 97-94. Leading at half-time 57-36, Arizona proved no match for Alabama, after Hollins fouled out with 5.36 remaining in the game to barely win. The Sun Devils lost the ball 13 times in the second half.

The Bruins defeated Michigan 103-91 in overtime at Pullman, Washington. The Bruins who have not lost a first round NCAA game since 1963, almost fell at the hands of Michigan, when the Wolverines scored 10 of the last 14 points to knot the score 87-87, at the end of regulation time. UCLA star center Dave Myers, controlled the boards in the overtime period and scored four points, leading the Bruins to their 103-91 win.

In the evenings opener, After trailing 32-26 at half-time, Montana managed to come from behind and upset Utah State 96-36.

At Saturday's game the Rebels showed strong support with a following of fans (about 4,000) from Las Vegas, including Mayor Oran Gragson, cheer-

HOWARD U. SEARCHING FOR COACH

WASHINGTON, D.C.- Howard University is currently seeking applications for the newly created position of full-time basketball coach, Athletic Director Leo F. Miles announced recently.

Marshall T. Emery, who has been the head coach at the Washington, D. C. university on a part-time basis for the past nine years, will now resume full-time teaching duties in the University's Department of Physical Education.

"I consider this new position to be one more step in Howard's efforts to build a first class athletic program," Miles said. "It is my feeling that basketball is a major component of our athletic system and that a full-time coach is vital in meeting the University's goals."

Howard will be looking for a candidate with a highly successful high school, college or professional coaching record.

NAACP PRO AM

NEW YORK -- A Celebrity Pro and Amateur Open Golf Tournament has been announced by the NAACP National Housing Corporation to be held in the nation's capital, on June 27-29, just prior to the Association's national convention. One of the many features of the tournament, which will take place at the Langston Golf Course, will be a Roy Wilkins Round.

ing them to victory. Right on mayor. The Rebels will need all the support they can get from their loyal fans Thursday, to defeat Arizona.

After UNLV plays Arizona State, Thursday, in Oregon, the winner will advance to the finals Saturday. Most likely the opponent will be UCLA. See you all at the game.

A.D. GUY 1st PLACE

The basketball team at A.D. Guy Unit of Clark County Boy's Clubs, won 11 out of 13 games played and took first place in the Doolittle League.

The team competed against five other teams during the season at the Doolittle Recreation Center. The boys worked hard, but had fun too under the direction of Jim Banks, better known as "Mac," the coach and athletic director at the A.D. Guy Boy's Club Unit.

They play in a final tournament championship on Saturday morning, March 29th.

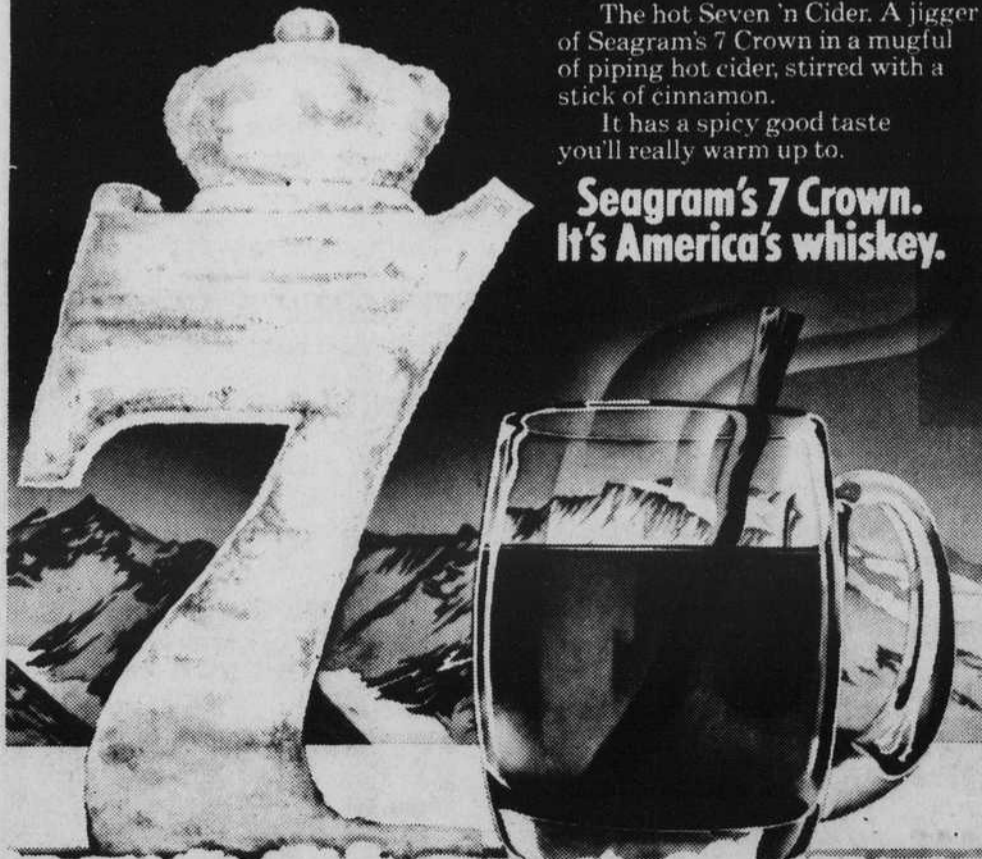

Please come and cheer them to victory. They need your support! For further information call "Mac" at 648-1178.

The Hot Seven 'n Cider.

Here's a hot idea for cold days. The hot Seven 'n Cider. A jigger of Seagram's 7 Crown in a mugful of piping hot cider, stirred with a stick of cinnamon.

It has a spicy good taste you'll really warm up to.

Seagram's 7 Crown. It's America's whiskey.
