

COMMUNITY RANCH PLANS SET

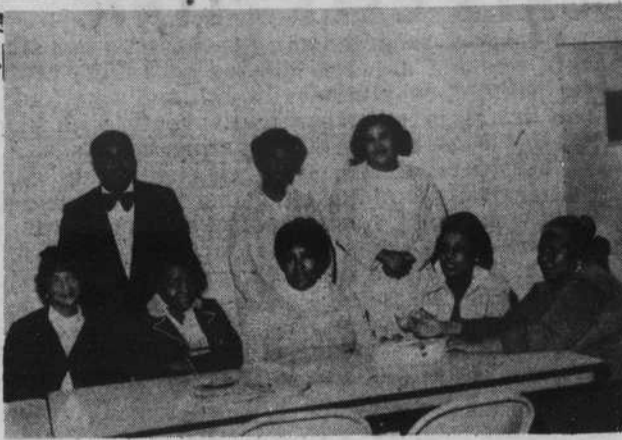

The committee for the Community Ranch for Boys finalized plans recently for a fund raising banquet at Zion Methodist Church to be held in May.

The committee plans to raise enough money to buy several acres of land on which to build a Community Ranch for Boys, according to Mrs. Aquilla Smith, director of the project. Mrs. Smith said tickets are now on sale. Anyone interested can call her at 648-4151, or 642-0701.

Mrs. Smith said the objectives of the Ranch are: to provide a meaningful and relevant school program for boys "out of harmony" with social goals and customs--which means boys 12-16 years of age on the borderline of juvenile delinquency; to prepare boys with relevant and realistic participation in vocational development and to provide tutorial and remedial learning programs.

Mrs. Smith said the committee does not have a designated site in mind, but it would have to be close to the Las Vegas area.

The committee also approved plans to contact and invite all heads of social agencies to a public meeting at a time to be set in the near future. "This meeting shall be designed to develop strategy to try to avert a long hard summer for potential juvenile offenders," Mrs. Smith said.
