

TRENIERS ENTERTAIN FOR EASTER SEALS

TRENIERS--The dynamic Treniers, hailed as one of the hottest lounge shows to ever hit Las Vegas, are appearing nightly at the Las Vegas Hilton Hotel. They brought their entertaining act to the Easter Seal Telethon this past weekend at the Tropicana.

KLUC SPONSORS CLEAN UP

Spring is traditional clean-up time and Las Vegas Radio Station KLUC is sponsoring a recycling project to help raise money for a worthwhile charity and conserve the nation's resources as well.

On Saturday, April 12th, at the East Parking Lot of the Las Vegas Convention Center, KLUC will be collecting recyclable aluminum, glass and newspapers.

The money collected during the project will be donated to Betty Honn's Animal Adoption Center. The Center accepts pets from families for them. The project will take place between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

In the past KLUC has taken part in many worthwhile community projects donating the proceeds to agencies in need of help.

DANCE TO THE MUSIC

Teenagers -- Look no more! Your Pre-Easter entertainment has been planned for you. This Saturday Night, March 29, 1975 from 8:00 p.m. to midnight, you can enjoy the scene at the Westside Athletic Association of Las Vegas, Inc. building, corner of D and Jefferson Streets. Admission is $.50 per person or $.75 per couple. We plan the best record hop yet! Your favorite records and good friends will be there to help you have a great time. Hot dogs, hamburgers and cold drinks will be sold, to refresh you between dances.

If you've been wondering what to do with part of your Easter vacation, make plans now to spend time with us. Your attendance at this dance will help W A A raise money to purchase more equipment for the Center program activities.

FOR GOOD MUSIC, ACTION AND FUN, JOIN YOUR FRIENDS AT W A A's RECORD HOP.

'COUNTDOWN AT KUSINI'

Greg Morris is back from Nigeria where he made a movie beating the drum for the nation

as a film location, as though he were the president of the Chamber of Commerce.

The picture he made there is "Countdown at Kusini" in which he, Ruby Dee and Ossie Davis co-starred with Davis directing. It was co-produced by Rolling Ventures and GLLIP Productions, Greg's own company, with the Delta Sigma Thetas providing financial backing. Both Greg's wife and Ruby Dee are Delta Sigma Thetas.

"Nigeria is incredibly green," Greg crows, "but the people are its most fantastic attraction. Nigerians are a very proud people. I never saw one with head bowed or sloped shoulders. It's inspiring."

Ruby Dee

BLACK EXTRAVAGANZA '75'

Morris is so enthusiastic about production in Nigeria that he plans to go back almost immediately to discuss prospects for another film. "I've been assured that the money's there if I can come up with a script," Greg says. "Right now I have several to read."

Ossie Davis

Although key posts in the crew were held by Americans, Nigerians were included in both the production crew and the actual cast.

"I play a jazz pianist in the picture," Greg says, "and my sideman is played by Jab Abu, Nigeria's leading actor. He has his own television series there called "Village Headmaster."

Greg's family joined him in Lagos for two of the six weeks he was on location there.

"We've got a picture," he beams, "nobody can say was shot on the back lot."

DY-NO-MITE.....Sizzling, tantalizing, and super-superlative cannot describe Ms. Diane Collins. Belly dancing with a touch of Soul all rhythmically tuned with the sensuous moves of Diane's gyrating body. One of the many attractions to be seen at "Black Extravaganza '75" April 26 8 P.M. to 11 P.M. at the Convention Center Rotunda Room.
