Easter Eggs From Holy Land

Hand-crafted olive wood eggs.

The latest Easter Eggs are unique collector's items with a direct link to the land of the Bible - beautifully hand-crafted in Bethlehem of aged and seasoned native olive wood.

Following ancient family tradition, Christian artisans fashion nobly gnarled olive wood into ornamental eggs. Each is individual, thanks to the naturally marbled grain of the golden wood.

The egg designs are like emblems of history since olive trees grow for centuries. The olive tree in the Garden of Gethsemane, for example, is said to be 2,000 years old.

The enduring beauty and origin of the olive wood eggs make them keepsakes of heirloom quality to treasure and display year-round. They're a timely solution for grandparents and parents who prefer giving meaningful and lasting holiday mementoes. The olive wood eggs proclaim nature's incomparable handiwork and the spirit of the Easter season.

Exclusively imported by Barach Freres, Dept. 5B, 5006 N. Lawndale Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60625, the eggs are available in pairs for $8.50 postpaid. The importer will arrange for direct airmail from the Holy Land with a Bethlehem postmark for $9.50 a pair.
