

FORD SWINGS FOR CHARITY

Last December at a testimonial to Lee Elder in Washington, D.C., President Gerald Ford and Gulf community relations manager Roy Kohler (upper left) both promised to help Lee Elder with a tournament that would benefit his scholarship for Black youngsters.

Both kept their promise this month. Mr. Ford played with Elder, Flip Wilson and Pro Jim Weichers and Gulf sponsored the $10,000 Pro Purse.

Most members of Gulf's community leaders golf team were on hand (bottom right) and four of them were on winning teams. More than 44 teams competed in a best ball match which featured a pro, celebrity and two amateurs in each foursome. The top fifteen teams won awards including (upper right) Roy Kohler, 2nd place team, with amateurs Horace Archer and Ike Minder. Pro was Rodney Cross. Other Gulf winners (lower left) were Walt Mangham, 5th place team, Daisy Richardson, 12th, Kohler and Frank Hampton, 13th.

The two day event was won by Pro Chuck Thorpe and raised thousands of dollars to help Black youngsters to learn how to play golf and qualify for college scholarships.
