BLACK BAIT

As told to Leo Guild
Cover Price: $1.50
BH469 - 224 pages

Leo Guild, author of the best-selling The Girl Who Loved Black, again delves into the mystery, humor and fascination of a Black woman's soul, and tells the sensationally revealing story of Lila, a foxy, fast race track swinger.

Lila, the stunning Black chick with skin the color of coffee ice cream, the face of a kittenish virgin, and the body of a successful prostitute. We meet her first as a cocktail waitress at the track, and her charms so outweigh her petulant mercurial nature that she gets race tickets for her tips.

Gradually Lila, who likes to think of herself as a "little ol' sweet nigger," works her way to the top and marries one of the more successful horse trainers in the business. But the luck of lasting love isn't with this passionate master of kinky sex and she finds herself widowed...and a millionaires.

This is a thoroughly engrossing story of a gambling woman with a heart of gold, nerves of steel and a backbone of ice. Lila...she's Black bait and you'll never forget her!

KENYETTA'S LAST HIT

By Al C. Clark
Cover price: $1.50
BH471-224 pages

An author writing under a pseudonym is not news. But when it's announced, as it has been now, that A. C. Clark is none other than the late Donald Goines, the most celebrated Black author of all time, then it's important news indeed.

Writing under the Clark name, Goines created Kenyetta, a ruthless ghetto chieftain, whose adventures we've followed in "Crime and Partners," "Death List" and "Kenyetta's Escape." And now the big man's off on his biggest caper to date...knocking off the biggest drug pusher of them all, with the action at the top of one of the biggest hotels in Las Vegas.

The brilliant, gripping story is affected only by our tragic awareness that this is the last Donald Goines story we'll ever read.
