

Reid Rally

Friends of Harry Reid, a volunteer campaign organization, has announced a rally in support of Reid's candidacy Saturday, May 31, from 3 to 10 p.m.

The rally will be held at 1941 Fair Ave., and will feature swimming, entertainment and refreshments as well as a talk by the candidate. The Hayes Family will provide the music.

Listed as the sponsors of the rally are Aquilla S. Guy, May Couyette, Ida Crockett, Ruby Garland and Helen Flemmings.

Summer plays

The Camp Fire Summer Repertory Troupe for high school age boys and girls, will convene June 16 at the Reed Whipple Cultural Arts Center, 821 Las Vegas Blvd. N., (Center Stage) from 10 a.m. to noon. They will meet on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday every week through July 2.

The class will learn improvisation in preparation for presenting a one act play at various institutions throughout the city; stage techniques and characterizations will be explored.

Workshop director for the class will be Paula Dion, a past graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York City, who spent many years acting in off-Broadway productions and summer stock.

Registration fee is $10 and will take place at Camp Fire Headquarters at 3008 W. Charleston Blvd. For further information call Paula Dion at 876-3801.

POWER FOR THE PEOPLE

Flanked by supporters and district leaders, Representative Hosea Williams, freshman Georgia legislator and former executive staff member under the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., witnesses Georgia's Gov. George Busbee signing into law House Bill 473, sponsored by Williams, which makes it illegal for any utility company to cut off a customer's service because of delinquent payments on appliances purchased from the company or repair by the company to an appliance.

Among those witnessing the signing were: Nationally-known singer Tamiko Jones; Georgia State Rep. Ben Brown; Atlantic City Councilman Arthur Langford, who served as campaign manager for Rep. Williams; Mrs. Hosea L. Williams; and leaders of the 54th House District.
