

Clothes hangers needed

The Opportunity Village Thrift Store needs wire, or other clothes hangers, according to store manager Margaret Parks.

She invited local residents who now have too many extra hangers in their closets, or other storage areas, to deposit the hangers in the Opportunity Village Wishing Wells which are located throughout the city.

"Other residents might prefer to include these hangers with other clothing, furniture, books, toys or appliances which are being donated to Opportunity Village," Mrs. Parks added.

For free pickup of unwanted items, call 384-8170. The Thrift Store is located at 925 South Main Street.

Money earned from the Thrift Store sales supplies 60 percent of the funds needed to support job training programs for the mentally retarded and multi-handicapped adults who are enrolled at the Opportunity Village Sheltered Workshop.

Mrs. Grace McGlothen Out-going Basileus receives plaque of appreciation

Mrs. Grace McGlothen out-going Basileus was the recipient of a beautiful plaque of appreciation from the members of the sorority for her outstanding services during the past 2 years serving efficiently as their first president and leading the group to the winning of the "Chapter of the Year" Award at a Regional Conference held in San Francisco.

Other members who received awards for their services to the Sorority are: Mrs. Charlotte Cook, Scholarship Chairman and Dean of Pledges, and Mrs. Simmie Daniels, Xinos Youth Guidance Sponsor and Publicity Chairman.
