

DR. JAMES W. RUSSELL

Dr. Russell has been living in Las Vegas for more than two months. He is a Criminologist, a crime fighter, who does scientific study of delinquency and crime including its characteristics and evaluation of crime and criminals.

Dr. Russell comes from California with the intention of working with the Criminal Justice System, or to teach at the University or Junior College level.

He received his Doctorate and Masters Degree at Berkley, Calif., his B.A. from California State University, with three quarters toward his M.A. IN Sociology. He also carries an A.A. degree from a nearby junior college, and carries a lifetime teaching and counseling credentials.

Dr. Russell taught Adult and Juvenile Criminal Justice at Berkley, California; worked as a Personnel and Program Director; as a researcher and investigator for many years; a consultant to Criminal Justice; Head Counselor and Consultant, founder and Administrator for an Anti-Drug Program.

His expertise is teaching in the field of adult, juvenile crime, and in particular, working with offenders, ex-offenders and other people with problems.

"The way crime has been on the rise in the United States, and especially in Nevada, is shocking and some of the greatest dilemmas for the people of Las Vegas, have been murder, rape and burglary. Crime is multiplying faster than the growth of population and even faster than civilization itself. This can be curbed before all of us are engulfed in greater flames of tragedies.
