

VERSATILE SPRINTER BEARS WATCHING

Carl McCullough runs track and majors in business at Arizona State. And when he's running track, he means business.

McCullough is a rarity among sprinters and typical of the better ones—he is versatile, proficient at three distances, the 100, 220 and 440 dashes.

The 5-11, 162 pound McCullough has clocked 9.4 over the century, 20.5 at 220 and 47.2 over a quarter-mile course. From all indications the 200 may be McCullough's strongest event, combining his speed and endurance!

It is too early to determine McCullough's Olympic potential but at 20 years old, he may be reaching his peak just in time for the Montreal Games. It's certainly a name to keep in the back of your mind.

GRAMBLING OPENS IN NEW ORLEANS

Grambling opens its season on September 6 in New Orleans against the Alcorn A&M Braves. The game will be the college inaugural for the Superdome.

Coach Robinson, who is approaching the season with his usual guarded optimism, will be moving into his 34th year as head football coach at Grambling, a span in which he has compiled an awesome 236-81-11 record. Bobby ranks fourth in all-time wins among college coaches and is second only to Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant in career wins among active coaches. Tune in 11:40 A.M. KVOV Radio-1280 on your dial, for fine coverage.
