MAC'S TRACKS

1975 BISON SOCCER BRIGHT

The defending NCCA Division I soccer champion, Howard University, must resume warfare in 1975 without a pair of last season's most indispensable players -- captain Ian Michael Bain and freshman Kenneth Illodigwe.

Bain, an honorable mention all-American last season and chosen in the first round of the North American Soccer League draft, was expected to be missed due to graduation, but the loss of Illodigwe will have Coach Lincoln A. Phillips searching for a suitable substitute.

Illodigwe, a freshman sensation from Nigeria who scored the winning goal for Howard in their 2-1 championship victory over St. Louis last season, was the third leading Bison scorer in 1974 with 10 goals. He was reportedly transferred to Clemson University in South Carolina.

Phillips will probably be looking to compensate by taking a close look at recruit Keith Tucker, a Bermuda product who will be one of college soccer's great utility players.

Other newcomers include two Washington, D.C. area candidates in Jeppah Millhouse, an all-city selection from the Rosedale Darts, and Goalie Allen Gilean, a graduate of Springarn High School.

Gilbert Bampose, a Ghanaian, rounds out Phillips additions.

The UNLV season football ticket drive has passed the record-breaking 7,100 total, according to figures released by Rebel ticket manager Sherman Bennet.

Said Bennet, "This is by far the largest and most successful season ticket drive that we have ever had for football at UNLV.

This 7,100-plus figure represents those also secured by the Rebel boosters. Last year, the combined total of scholarship and season ticket holders in football approached the 4,500 mark.

With the exception of 1,100 bleacher-type seats, the remaining 15,000 seats in the Las Vegas Stadium will be on a reserved basis for the 1975 season.

Prices for tickets on a per game basis will remain constant throughout the season at $6 and $4 for reserved seats and general admission seats will also be available on a per-game basis at the Rebel ticket outlets in the community and at the Stadium the day of the game.

UNLV will open the season at home on Sept. 13 when the University of Northern Iowa visits. The other rebel home dates for 1975 and the opponent are: Oct. 4-Jackson State University; Oct. 11-University of Nebraska, Omaha; Oct. 25-Homecoming against the University of Idaho; Nov. 1-Northern Arizona University; Nov. 8-South Dakota State University; and Nov. 15-Weber State College.

All the Rebel home games are on Saturdays at 8:15 p.m. Anyone wishing tickets or information is urged to contact the UNLV ticket office at 739-3678.

University of Nevada, Las Vegas Head soccer coach Tom Khamis announced recently the 1975 Rebel soccer schedule.

With a total of 21 games on tap (including three tournaments), the Rebels will have 11 home contests and will face seven foes from last year and 11 new opponents, including the Trojans of USC.

The Rebels will start the year on Saturday, September 13, on the infield of the UNLV track against the University of Arizona. On the following day, UNLV, in its second season of intercollegiate play, will play an exhibition match against Cuantemac, also on the UNLV track.

The Rebels face a "tough schedule," according to Khamis, who guided the first-year team to an impressive 8-3-3 record last year.

Besides the season finale against USC on November 15 at the Las Vegas Stadium, the Rebels will also face such soccer powerhouses as the University of San Diego (October 4), Brigham Young University (October 10-11), Utah State University (October 12 and November 14), San Diego State (October 25), and Arizona State (November 1).

Heading the list of ten returning lettermen are team captain Cliff Tabor, goalie Bob Singer, and last year's top scorer Roy Sparks.

Khamis and his assistant, Mitch Preus, are currently conducting practices from 5pm-8pm Monday through Saturday. In addition to the ten returners, Khamis has 17 newcomers on hand.

UNLV will play its home matches on the infield of the campus track, on the campus football field, Western High School, and the Las Vegas Stadium.
