

STAR ENTERTAINMENT

TOUR SUCCESSFUL: Literally thousands of Europeans are flocking to become members of Maestro Barry White's Fan Club, following The Maestro's recent and successful concert tour of Europe, according to an official report from the creative department of Maestro Barry White's musical complexes that's directly responsible for the creation and maintenance of the fan club.

The upsurge of Europeans seeking membership into 'The Maestro's Fan Club,' along with the steady flow of applications from his many fans and followers here in the states, attests to the indication that 'The Maestro's Fan

Club,' will be one of the largest membership fan clubs to date of any artist or super star with a fan club.

Additionally the creative department in control of the fan club, has put on an all out campaign to increase the membership of Maestro Barry White's Fan Club to exceed 1-million registered members, a figure that's inkeeping with the musical genius who's records constantly sell in excess of 1-million copies.

Anyone seeking information regarding Maestro Barry White's Fan Club, should write to Post Office Box 69950, Hollywood, California 90069.

PLAYERS "HONEY" IS GOLD

Mercury recording artists the Ohio Players won two top awards at the recently concluded NATRA Convention. The Players won Best R&B Single of The Year for "Fire" and Best R&B Album of The Year, also for "Fire." NATRA is composed of black radio and television announcers nationwide.

The awards come just days after the new Ohio Players album, "Honey," was certified gold by the RIAA, their third such award since the group joined Mercury Records last year.

The two other Ohio Players albums on Mercury, "Skin Tight" and "Fire," have also been certified gold as well as attaining the platinum level (one million units.) Additionally, the title tracks from both albums have been certified gold as singles. The Players' new single from the "Honey" album is entitled "Sweet Sticky Thing," released August 22.

Just one of the many times that FRED WILLIAMSON and RICHARD PRYOR get run out of the many towns and places in the motion picture, "ADIOS AMIGO", as a result of RICHARD PRYOR, who plays the part of Sam, always wheeling and dealing and leaving FRED holding the bag, in this side-splitting, action-filled western movie, produced by FRED WILLIAMSON under the Po Boy Productions banner and filmed on location in Sante Fe, New Mexico.

THE MONARCH SHOW

FEATURING

TRANS-LOVE ESTACY

"A SHOW WITHIN A SHOW"

APPEARING NIGHTLY

WEDNESDAY THRU SUNDAY

10 P.M. UNTIL ?

Big A's Hide-A-Way LOUNGE 900 W. Bonanza